TYLA ELECTION SCHEDULED

Pursuant to the bylaws of the Texas Young Lawyers Association, the membership of the TYLA will choose a president-elect and 13 directors in April. Regular members of TYLA include every licensed Texas attorney who is 36 years old or younger as of June 1 each year or attorneys within their initial 60-month licensing period as of June 1. Regular members are eligible to hold office and vote for president-elect and director or directors of their district.

This year, nominees for president-elect must come from districts encompassing any city except Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, or San Antonio. One does not have to be an officer or director to be nominated for president-elect.
