TEXAS LAWYERS' ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Texas Lawyers' Assistance Program (TLAP) is a confidential crisis counseling and referral program that helps Texas lawyers, law students, and judges who are challenged by substance use and other mental health disorders, including clinical depression, anxiety, and stress-related concerns.

Texas Lawyers Concerned for Lawyers (TLCL) is a non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation, independent of TLAP and the State Bar, whose mission and purpose closely resembles those of TLAP.

TLCL and TLAP have joined together to offer and support lawyer self-help support groups around the state. Primarily for lawyers concerned about alcohol and drug use, many groups are also welcoming of lawyers with mental health issues.

TLAP understands that depression and other mood disorders may require specialized therapy and group facilitation. TLAP is working with therapists in several Texas cities to provide low cost facilitated therapy groups for lawyers challenged by depression and other mood disorders.

Please call TLAP at (800) 343-8527 for information about these groups.

TexasBar.com/ethics

Your one-stop shop for Texas legal ethics resources

The State Bar of Texas, in collaboration with the Supreme Court of Texas, has created an online clearinghouse of ethics resources for Texas lawyers, judges, and legal professionals. By gathering relevant information in one place, we've made it easy for you to find answers to your questions and to help ensure that Texas lawyers, judges, and legal professionals maintain the highest standards of professionalism.

At texasbar.com/ethics, you will find links to:

- Conduct and procedural rules
- Ethics opinions
- Information about the attorney grievance system
- Relevant committees, organizations, and programs

The webpage will be updated regularly to ensure it remains current.
