STATE BAR OF TEXAS
COMMITTEE ON COURT RULES

REQUEST FOR NEW RULE OR CHANGE OF EXISTING RULE
TEXAS RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

I. Exact wording of existing Rule:

Rule 216. REQUEST AND FEE FOR JURY TRIAL

a. Request. No jury trial shall be had in any civil suit, unless a written request for a jury trial is filed with the clerk of the court a reasonable time before the date set for trial of the cause on the non-jury docket, but not less than thirty days in advance.

II. Proposed Rule:

Rule 216. REQUEST AND FEE FOR JURY TRIAL

a. Request. No jury trial shall be had in any civil suit, unless a written request for a jury trial is filed with the clerk of the court a reasonable time before the date set for trial of the cause on the non-jury docket, but not ~~less than thirty days in advance~~ later than the 30th day before the date set for trial of the cause on the non-jury docket.

III. Brief statement of reasons for requested changes and advantages to be served by them:

The proposed change is intended to promote greater clarity and consistency in the expression of time, time periods and deadlines by (1) referring to the "date" or "day" on which an event occurs, as opposed to "time" which may be construed to mean a time of day, (2) describing a time period in a way that makes the first and last days clear, and (3) leaving no doubt about which is the last day on which action may be taken, in accordance with §7.28 of the Texas Legislative Counsel Drafting Manual.

Respectfully submitted,
