MEMORIALS

Memorials are published as a tribute to deceased Texas attorneys. Information included is primarily related to the individual's accomplishments in the legal profession. To submit a Memorial, please visit texasbar.com/tbj and fill out an online form or call (512) 427-6834 for more information. To learn more about closing a deceased attorney's practice, visit texasbarcle.com/materials/closingapractice.html.

OLLIE K. MAYO

Mayo, 78, of San Antonio, died March 28, 2010. He received his law degree from St. Mary's University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1960. He was a private practitioner in the Law Office of Ollie K. Mayo from 1960 until his death. He served in the U.S. Army and the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Corps. He is survived by his wife of 47 years, Helga Mayo; son, attorney Patrick Mayo of San Antonio; daughter, Christina Henarie of San Antonio; and three grandchildren.

ARTHUR C. "CAPPY" EADS

Eads, 70, of Salado, died Nov. 1, 2011. He received his law degree from Baylor Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1970. He began his legal career in 1968 as an investigator for the Bell County District Attorney's Office. He was a private practitioner before serving as assistant district attorney for the 27th District, which included Bell, Mills, and Lampasas counties. He served as the Bell County attorney from 1975 to 1976. In 1976, he was elected district attorney of the 27th Judicial District. He served in that position until his retirement in 2000. He was of counsel to Tekell & Atkins, L.L.P. in Waco from 2001 until his death. He served as municipal judge of the Village of Salado until his death. He served as president of the National District Attorney Association in 1986. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve from 1960 to 1968. He is survived by his son, George Coleman Eads III of Los Angeles, Calif.; daughter, attorney Angela Eads Tekell of Waco; sister, Betty Eads Manning of Fort Collins, Colo.; and two grandchildren.

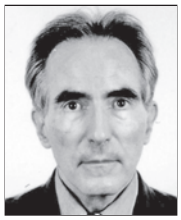
RALPH ERVIN WILLIAMSON

Williamson, 64, of San Antonio, died Sept. 21, 2011. He received his law degree from St. Mary's University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1996. He was president and CEO of CRW Corporation and CRW-SWD Corporation. He served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War. He is survived by his wife, attorney Marsha Cope Huie; daughters, Charlotte Amalie Williamson of San Antonio, Elizabeth Anne Williamson of London, England, and Barbara Halina Williamson of Austin; sisters, Mary Jane Williamson Wilmeth and Charla Williamson, both of Midland, and Toni W. Croft of Anchorage, Alaska.

ALBERT HORTON SCHLIEMAN

Schlieman, 92, of Grand Prairie, died Sept. 16, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1946. He was a partner in Phillips, Horton & Schlieman in Corpus Christi from 1946 to 1955. From 1955 to 1984, he was a title examiner with the Corpus Christi Title Company. In the 1950s, he substituted for the municipal judge of the corporation court in Corpus Christi. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II and the U.S. Army Reserve. He is survived by his wife of 20 years, Jean Schlieman; sons, Windon Stewart and Brandon Stewart; daughters, attorney Mari Stewart of Colleyville, Kristen Stewart, and Suzanne Horner; brother, Dr. Edwin Read of Grand Prairie; sister, Blanche Read of Providence, R.I.; and two foster grandchildren.

WERNER ROBERT VOIGT, JR.



Voigt, 73, of Miami, Fla., died Jan. 14, 2011. He received his law degree from South Texas College of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1982. He was a member of the Florida bar. He served as a Harris County judge.

JAMES ALLEN BARGFREDE

Bargfrede, 82, of Houston, died Aug. 21, 2011. He received his law degree from St. Mary's University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1957. He practiced in Chicago for three years before moving to Texas. He was an associate of Butler & Binion from 1960 to 1972. From 1972 to 1976, he was founding partner in Bargfrede & Thompson. He served as general counsel to Hydrotech from 1977 to 1981. He was owner of the Law Office of James Bargfrede from 1981 to 2000. He served in the U.S. Air Force from 1950 to 1953. He is survived by his wife, Virginia Bargfrede; and son, attorney Allen Bargfrede of Boston, Mass.

WILLIAM TECUMSEH MILLER, JR.

Miller, 95, of Gonzales, died Oct. 1, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1965. He was a partner in Miller & Robinson from 1965 to 2006. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps during World War II and the Korean War. He is survived by his son, William Tecumseh Miller III of El Dorado, Ohio; and daughter, Catherine Miller of Louisville, Ky.

EDWARD J. DRAKE

Drake, 87, of Dallas, died Nov. 25, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1949. He practiced with Brady, Drake, Wilson & Yates and Vinyard, Drake & Miller. He was of counsel to Jordan, Dunlap & Prather. He was a sole practitioner from 1996 until his death. He served in the U.S. Army Air Corps during World War II. He is survived by his wife, Douda Dodson Drake; son, Edward J. Drake of Dallas; daughters, Diane Drake Burns of Dallas and Carol Drake Fletcher of McKinney; and six grandchildren.

JOSEPH PATRICK "PAT" HAZEL

Hazel, 78, of Austin, died Oct. 1, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1971. He served as a briefing clerk for Judge Leon Douglas of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals from 1971 to 1972. From 1972 to 1976, he was an associate of Gibbins & Spivey. He was a partner in Spivey, Hazel & Grigg and a lecturer at the University of Texas School of Law from 1976 to 1978. He was an adjunct professor at the law school from 1978 to 1984. He was the Tiny Gooch Centennial Professor of Trial Practice at the law school from 1984 to 2003. He taught trial advocacy during winter sessions at Harvard Law School from 1983 to 2009. He is survived by his wife of 15 years, attorney Nanneska Nall Hazel; stepsons, Nicholas Hammett III of Austin, Chris Magee of Selinsgrove, Pa., and Ted Magee of Austin; stepdaughter, Teri Hammett Pitzini of Atlanta, Ga.; brothers, Michael Hazel of Dallas and Stephen Hazel of Kansas City, Kan.; and eight step-grandchildren.

JACOB WESLEY JONES

Jones, 31, of Dallas, died Oct. 23, 2011. He received his law degree from Texas Wesleyan School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 2009. He was an associate of the Law Offices of Dean Malone, P.C. from 2009 until his death. He is survived by his mother, Dena Cobb of Purdon.

STEPHEN G. GOOCH

Gooch, 70, of Monrovia, Calif., died May 31, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Southern California Gould School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1993. He was a member of the California and New Jersey bars. He was a private practitioner before becoming a contract attorney with CF Braun & Company in Alhambra, Calif., and later in Murray Hill, N.J., from 1970 to 1982. He was a contract attorney with Santa Fe International in Aberdeen, Scotland, then in Alhambra from 1982 to 1992 and in Dallas from 1992 until his retirement in 2002. He is survived by his wife of 26 years, Beverly Mitchum; son, John Gooch of Garner, N.C.; brother, Tim Gooch of Irvine, Calif.; and two grandchildren.

GARY LEE SCHAPPAUGH

Schappaugh, 66, of Garland, died Oct. 5, 2011. He received his law degree from Southern Methodist University and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1977. He was owner of the Law Office of Gary L. Schappaugh in Mesquite from 1977 until his death. He served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War. He is survived by his wife, Patricia Schappaugh; sons, Christopher Schappaugh and Adam Schappaugh; brother, James Schappaugh of Valdosta, Ga.; and two grandchildren.

TOBY LOUIS MASH

Mash, 59, of Ennis, died Nov. 17, 2011. He received his law degree from Oklahoma City University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1977. He was a partner in McCarty, Wilson & Mash, P.C. from 1977 until his death. He served as attorney for the City of Palmer and for the City of Ennis from 1981 until his death. He is survived by his wife of 39 years, Reba Mash; son, Toby L. Mash II of Oklahoma City, Okla.; daughter, Amberlie Jan Middleton of Arlington; mother, Marjorie H. Mash of Corsicana; sisters, Jane Lewis of Mabank and Sonia Vaughn of Corsicana; and two grandchildren.

DEWEY RUDOLPH WADLINGTON

Wadlington, 85, of McKinney, died Oct. 31, 2010. He received his law degree from South Texas College of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1959. He practiced with El Paso Natural Gas Company in Houston from 1959 to 1967, with Texas Oil & Gas Company in Dallas from 1969 to 1986, and with Enmark Gas Company in Dallas from 1986 until his retirement in 1999. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He is survived by his wife of 66 years, Joan Haynes Wadlington; daughter, Kelly Gail Fitzgerald of McKinney; three grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. ✪