MEMORIALS

Memorials are published as a tribute to deceased Texas attorneys. Information included is primarily related to the individual's accomplishments in the legal profession. To submit a Memorial, please visit texasbar.com/tbj and fill out an online form or call (512) 427-6834 for more information. To learn more about closing a deceased attorney's practice, visit texasbarcle.com/materials/closingapractice.html.

JOHN ANDERSON WOODSIDE

Woodside, 69, of Midland, died Jan. 4, 2012. He received his law degree from Southern Methodist University and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1967. He joined the FBI as a special agent in 1966. He was an assistant attorney in the Midland County Attorney's Office before opening his own law firm. He was a shareholder in Cotton, Bledsoe, Tighe & Dawson from 1974 until his death. He is survived by his wife of 43 years, Lucy M. Woodside; son, Thomas James "Tom" Woodside of Midland; daughter, Elizabeth Woodside Stout of Midland; sister, Elizabeth Woodside Welch of Niceville, Fla.; and three grandchildren.

BILL HOLLOWELL

Hollowell, 83, of Grand Saline, died Jan. 18, 2012. He received his law degree from Baylor Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1951. In 1967, he served as legal adviser to the clerk of the U.S. House of Representatives in Washington, D.C. He served 14 terms in the Texas House of Representatives before retiring in 1991. He practiced law in Grand Saline and worked for several months for Congressman Ralph M. Hall in Washington, D.C. He taught government courses at Henderson County Junior College. He served in the Texas Army and Air National Guard and was appointed a judge advocate in the Texas Army and Air National Guard Judge Advocate General's Corps. He is survived by his wife of 13 years, Mary Jane Hollowell; and stepson, John Farmer of Greensboro, N.C.

CHARLES E. BIERY

Biery, 92, of San Antonio, died Jan. 4, 2012. He received his law degree from St. Mary's University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1946. He was an agent with the FBI before he served as an assistant district attorney in the Bexar County District Attorney's Office from 1946 to 1950. From 1950 to 2006, he was a partner in Biery, Biery, Myers & Armstrong, where he practiced with his brother. He was attorney for the City of Terrell Hills. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He is survived by his wife of 35 years, Rosalyn Biery; son, Charles E. Biery, Jr.; daughters, Jayme Biery, Cathy Holden, and Karyn Norris; brother, attorney Samuel F. Biery; 11 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

HAROLD LEVINE

Levine, 79, of Dallas, died Feb. 14, 2011. He received his law degree from George Washington University Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1973. He was a member of the Massachusetts and Virginia bars. He was in-house patent attorney for Metals & Controls in Attelboro, Mass., from 1958 to 1963. From 1963 to 1978, he was general patent counsel to Texas Instruments in Dallas. He was a partner in Sigalos & Levine in Dallas from 1978 to 1994, in Levine & Majorie in Dallas from 1994 to 2001, and in Levine & Starr in Plano from 2001 to 2005. From 2005 to 2008, he was a private practitioner. He is survived by his son, Harold R. Levine of Dallas; daughters, Linda L. Gerson of Amherst, N.H., attorney Brenda L. Sutherland of Dallas, Jill Lipari of Houston, Louise Marion of Sachse, and attorney Cristina Levine; and four grandchildren.

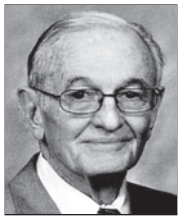
CHARLES L. "BUD" CAVNESS

Cavness, 90, of Houston, died Feb. 7, 2012. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1946. He worked as counsel to a number of major and minor oil companies. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He is survived by his wife, Tita Cavness; son, Charles Cavness of Denver, Colo.; daughter, Sue Ann Cavness of Denver; and three grandchildren.

CHARLES SMITHER DAVIS

Davis, 75, of Huntsville, died April 19, 2011. He received his law degree from Baylor Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1959. He practiced with Davis, Davis & Durham. He is survived by his sons, Charles S. Davis, Jr. and Joseph Wayne Davis, both of Huntsville; brother, Joe G. Davis, Jr. of San Antonio; and five grandchildren.

JAMES ABNEY McMULLEN III



McMullen, 82, of Fort Worth, died Nov. 19, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1954. He practiced with Stone, Agerton, Parker & Snakard in 1958. He opened his own law practice in 1973. He was president of the Fort Worth Junior Bar. He served in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Corps. He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Mary Louise McMullen; son, Wade Hampton McMullen; daughter, Kay Louise Creighton; sister, Ora Beth McMullin; and four grandchildren.

ELVIS G. SCHULZE

Schulze, 66, of Canton, died Sept. 23, 2011. He received his law degree from St. Mary's University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1973. He was a private practitioner in Austin from 1973 to 1989. From 1989 until his retirement in 2006, he was an attorney with the State of Texas in Austin. He served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War. He is survived by his wife of 44 years, Jean A. Schulze; son, Paul R. Schulze of Dallas; daughter, Holly J. Shankle of Frisco; brother, Norman Schulze of Ocala, Fla.; sister, Florine Kovar of Houston; and four grandchildren.

FRANK P. CHRISTIAN

Christian, 84, of San Antonio, died Jan. 5, 2012. He received his law degree from St. Mary's University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1955. He was a private practitioner until his retirement in 1985. He served in the U.S. Army. He is survived by his wife of 58 years, Harriet Christian; sons, Prescott Carrington Christian, Anthony Navarro Christian, and Benjamin Blackwell Christian, all of Austin; daughters, Mara Christian Harris of Santa Fe, N.M., Alicia Carrington Christian of San Antonio, and Pamela Dearing Christian of Austin.

MARCH HENRY COFFIELD

Coffield, 77, of Jasper, died Feb. 4, 2012. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1967. He was a private practitioner. He was a longtime member of the Jasper City Council and served as mayor pro tem of the City of Jasper. He served in the U.S. Army. He is survived by his wife of 47 years, Jeanette Havard Coffield; sons, Mac Coffield and Jason Coffield; and four grandchildren.

ROBERT H. CALDWELL, JR.

Caldwell, 90, of Denton, died Dec. 1, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1948. He was attorney for the City of Denton from 1950 to 1952. From 1952 to 1956, he was the Denton County district and county attorney. He was a private practitioner from 1956 to 1985. He served in the U.S. Army. He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Elinor H. Caldwell; sons, Robert H. Caldwell III of Austin and James H. Caldwell of Denton; daughters, Ellen Caldwell of Dallas and Laura C. Tucker of Austin; and one grandchild.

GLYNN A. PUGH

Pugh, 87, of Corpus Christi, died April 16, 2010. He received his law degree from Vanderbilt University Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1960. He was a member of the Tennessee bar. He began his legal career as a clerk to Judge Hugo Black. He was a sole practitioner from 1980 until his death. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He is survived by his sons, Joel Pugh of Dallas, David Pugh of Austin, and James Tucker of Plano; daughters, Linda Catherine of New Braunfels and Margaret Anne Clinton of Pinckneyville, Ill.; nine grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

ROBERT QUENTIN KEITH

Keith, 77, of Austin, died Nov. 25, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1959. In 1959, he joined his father's firm, Mehaffy, Weber, Keith & Gonsoulin in Beaumont. He was managing partner in the firm until 1991. He was managing partner in Keith & Keith in Johnson City from 1991 to 1993 and in Keith & Weber in Johnson City from 1993 until his death. He is survived by his wife of 53 years, Frana M. Keith; sons, Quentin Keith of Austin and Robert Keith of Marfa; daughters, Kallie Keith-Agaran, Hillery Keith of Houston, attorney Amy Keith of Cypress Mill, and Frana Keith Sadler of Laguna Beach, Calif.; sister, Janis Shoffner of Hilton Head, S.C.; and 11 grandchildren.

RYAN EUAN

Euan, 27, of The Woodlands, died Aug. 6, 2011. He received his law degree from South Texas College of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 2011. He was first a law clerk and then an attorney with Gauntt, Earl & Binney from 2010 until his death. He is survived by his partner, Michelle Dykes; son, Jameson Euan-Dykes of The Woodlands; father, Raymond Euan; mother, Cynthia Hughes; stepfather, attorney Patrick Hughes; sisters, Nicole Euan and Monet Euan; and stepbrother, Brandon Hughes.

CECIL EDWIN MUNN

Munn, 88, of Fort Worth, died Nov. 18, 2011. He received his law degree from Harvard Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1955. He was a member of the Oklahoma bar. He was a partner in Simons, Mitchell, Hedrich & Munn in Enid, Okla., from 1947 to 1955 and in Cantey and Hanger in Fort Worth from 1960 until his retirement in 1990. He was vice president and general counsel to Champlin Oil Company in Fort Worth from 1955 to 1960. He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Carolyn Culver Munn; son, Frank Culver Munn of Tulsa, Okla.; daughter, Charlotte Munn Ward of Fort Worth; four grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. ✪