WHAT'S ON TEXASBAR.COM

#ConstitutionDay12

Follow this hashtag on Twitter to keep track of "30 Days, 30 Ways to Love Your Constitution," our tribute to Constitution Day, Sept. 17. Each day we'll spotlight a different part of our favorite founding document. Follow us on Twitter at @statebaroftexas to be a part of the celebration. Also, check our Facebook page at facebook.com/statebaroftexas for more Constitution Day facts, trivia, and contests.

"We the People"

We want to know what your favorite thing is about the U.S. Constitution. Why is this document considered the standard the world over? Tell us at tbj@texasbar.com and we could include your answer on the State Bar Blog (blog.texasbar.com).

State Bar YouTube Contest

This year's State Bar YouTube video contest asks middle and high school students to create a short video on "Why is compromise important to our democratic society?" The contest launches on Constitution Day to invite discussion about the U.S. Constitution and how compromise played an important role in its framing. Encourage your children and their schools to participate. Learn more at texasbar.com/justicefortexas.

Oyez, Oyez, Oh Yay!

With school starting, make sure your children's teachers know about Oyez, Oyez, Oh Yay! Civics Resources for Texas Students and Teachers. Visit texasbar.com/civics or texaslre.org to enter this online resource that contains videos highlighting key U.S. Supreme Court cases, as well as other multimedia links, student resources and games, and lesson plans for teachers.

Bar Journal Web Exclusive

By popular demand! Read Secretary James A. Baker III's and Richard North Patterson's Annual Meeting keynote speeches in their entirety at texasbar.com/tbj. (See p. 620 for Annual Meeting coverage.)

Texas Lawyers for Texas Veterans

Interested in volunteering for a veterans legal clinic or know a veteran in need? Visit texasbar.com/veterans to find legal clinic lists and calendars, attorney training information and links, and an extensive list of online resources to help both attorneys and veterans.

Texas Bar Today

Bookmark TexasBarToday.com to get the latest in legal news and information from the top legal bloggers and websites in Texas and throughout the country, or subscribe to the Texas Bar Today RSS feed to get updates when you want them.

Need an Old Bar Journal Article?

Go to texasbar.com/tbj and click "Search the TBJ Archives" to access the complete magazine archives. Operated through HeinOnline, the archives are available starting with the first issue in January 1938 up to the present. You can save articles as PDFs or print them.

CLE and Other Resources

At texasbarcle.com, you can find CLE in the practice area you need or search the Online Library for course articles. Or visit tyla.org for a wealth of practical legal resources from the Texas Young Lawyers Association to help you and your clients.