- ☐ Did you check if the airbag deployed late or not at all?
- ☐ Did you check the seatbelts for evidence of unlatching?
- ☐ Did you evaluate roof crush?
- ☐ Did you check to see if a door opened?
- ☐ Did the seats deform?
- ☐ Did the vehicle catch on fire?

Vehicle safety systems routinely fail during accidents and expose people to the risks of serious injuries and death. To ensure your clients' have obtained a full recovery, a crashworthiness evaluation of the vehicle must be conducted.

At the TRACY law firm, we constantly question how the vehicle's safety systems perform during an accident.

The TRACY law firm is a nationwide law practice dedicated to the issue of identifying vehicle safety systems that violate the principles of crashworthiness.
