MEMORIALS

emorials are published as a tribute to deceased Texas attorneys. Information included is primarily related to the individual's accomplishments in the legal profession. To submit a Memorial, please visit texasbar.com/tbj and fill out an online form or call (512) 427-6834 for more information.

HUBERT W. GREEN

Green, 84, of San Antonio, died March 26, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas

Bar in 1950. He began his legal career in 1950 with his father's law firm, Green, Green & Wiley. In 1955, he was appointed by Gov. Allen Shivers as the Bexar County criminal district attorney. He returned to private practice in 1959 and practiced with Green, Kaufman & Lanfear; Green, McReynolds & Green; and the Kleberg Law Firm before retiring as a sole practitioner in 2007. He served in the U.S. Army Air Corps during World War II. He is survived by his wife of 61 years, Leah Tritt Green; sons, Justice Paul W. Green of Austin and attorney David W. Green of Corpus Christi; daughter, Cynthia Graham of Joplin, Mo.; nine grandchildren; and two grandchildren.

CHARLOTTE FISCHER EWART

Ewart, 43, of Houston, died Jan. 26, 2011. She received her law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1992.

She began her legal career with Ireson & Wizell in Houston. In 1999, she joined ICO, Inc., where she was promoted to general counsel in 2001 and also corporate secretary in 2002. She is survived by her husband, attorney Norman D. Ewart; son, Alexander Frederick Ewart of Houston; daughter, Nina Renee Ewart of Houston; stepson, Thomas Ewart of Austin; parents, E. Fred Fischer and Jeanne Serur Fischer, both of Round Rock; and brother, Jason Fischer of Los Angeles, Calif.

FRANK BRISCOE

Briscoe, 84, of Sugar Land, died Jan. 4, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas

Bar in 1950. He served as an assistant district attorney with the Harris County District Attorney's Office in Houston in 1950. He practiced with Butler, Binion, Rice & Cook before serving as the Harris County district attorney from 1960 to 1966. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps during World War II. He is survived by his wife of 24 years, Luann Rice Briscoe; sons, Frank Briscoe, Jr. of Richmond, and attorney W. Montgomery Briscoe and Robert M. Briscoe, both of Houston, and R. Brian Briscoe of Rosenberg; stepson, Calder Rice Richardson; stepdaughters, Christie Richardson Mintz and Kaylee Richardson Pittman; brother, Mason Briscoe; and 12 grandchildren.

JOSE H. ROJO

Rojo, 84, of Houston, died Dec. 28, 2010. He attended South Texas College of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1956. He served as deputy director of the Houston Legal Foundation and was a co-founder of the Mexican American Bar Association of Houston. He practiced with the Law Offices of John J. Herrera and the Law Offices of Jose H. Rojo, both in Houston. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He is survived by former wife, Sidney Rojo of Houston; sons, Ramón José Rojo of Houston and Roberto Burch Rojo of Richardson; daughter, Raquel Rojo Clendening of Houston; six grand-children; and five great-grandchildren.

RICARDO R. AMADOR II

Amador, 44, of Corpus Christi, died Aug. 1, 2010. He received his law degree from Texas Southern University and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1993. He was a staff attorney in the Law Office of Fred Jimenez from 1993 to 1996. From 1996 to 1998, he served as an assistant county attorney with the Nueces County Attorney's Office in Corpus Christi. He was a private practitioner from 1998 until his death. He is survived by his mother, Estella G. Amador.

HERBERT V. WALES

Wales, 80, of Midland, died March 14, 2010. He received his law degree from Southern Methodist University and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1952. He was a private practitioner from 1986 until his retirement. He is survived by his wife of 33 years, Maryellen S. Wales; three sons; two stepsons; two adopted sons; one daughter; and 12 grandchildren.

ROMANKO LEE BLANKINSHIP

Blankinship, 67, of San Antonio, died April 22, 2010. He received his law degree from Washburn University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1976. He was a member of the Kansas bar. He served in the U.S. Air Force Judge Advocate General's Corps from 1966 to 1976. He served as deputy chief of Military Justice at the U.S. Air Force Military Training Center at Lackland Air Force Base near San Antonio from 1976 until his retirement in 1998. He is survived by his son, Patrick L. Blankinship; daughter, Brenda L. Gonzales; and four grandchildren.

540 Texas Bar Journal • June 2011 www.texasbar.com

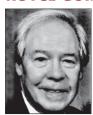

HARRY J. BURNS

Burns, 83, of San Antonio, died March 3, 2011. He received his law degree from St. Mary's University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1951. He began his legal career as a sole practitioner. He later practiced with Remy & Burns; Kampmann, Church & Burns from 1966 to 1983; Burns and O'Gorman and Burns, O'Gorman, Black, and Stafford from 1983 to 2003; and Burns & Black from 2004 until his retirement in 2008. He served in the Texas National Guard from 1947 to 1960 and as a judge on the court of military appeals for many years. He served as president of the San Antonio Bar Association from 1970 to 1971 and as a State Bar director from 1972 to 1975. He is survived by his wife, Olive "Tucker" Martin Burns; son, Paul Michael "Mike" Burns; daughter, Mary Elizabeth "Molly" Burns Banowetz; and two grandchildren.

ROYCE GUINN

Guinn, 94, of Cleveland, died May 28, 2010. He received his law degree from the University of Houston Law Center and was admitted to the Texas

Bar in 1941. He was owner of Royce Guinn & Associates, where he practiced with his daughter. He served in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Corps before joining and later taking over the law practice of Judge E.W. Love in Cleveland. He served as city attorney for the cities of Cleveland, North Cleveland, and Plum Grove. He was attorney for the Cleveland and New Caney school districts. He served as a president of the Liberty-Chambers Counties Bar Association. He served in the U.S. Army Reserve. He is survived by his wife of 64 years, Dora Guinn; son, Mat Guinn of Houston; daughter, attorney Gwendolyn Guinn Taylor of Cleveland; and four grandchildren.

CHARLES C. CATE

Cate, 72, of Katy, died Dec. 2, 2010. He received his law degree from South Texas College of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1969. From 1970 to 1977, he served as assistant district attorney with the Harris County District Attorney's Office in Houston. He was a sole practitioner in Katy from 1977 to 2002. He served as a president of the Katy Bar Association and the Waller County Bar Association. He was a director of the Fort Bend County Criminal Lawyers Association. He served in the U.S. Army and the Texas National Guard. He is survived by his wife of 40 years, Ruby Cate; daughters, Susan Weigl of Sugar Land and Chana Beene of Mexia; brothers, attorney James Cate of Houston, Patrick Cate of Pennsylvania, and David Cate of Bacliff; and five grandchildren.

DAVID WAYNE PERSON

Person, 44, of Houston, died March 2, 2011. He received his law degree from South Texas College of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1993. He was a personal injury attorney from 1993 until his death. He is survived by his mother, Elaine Scarborough Person of Beeville; and sister, Darla Person.

GLORIA ANN JACKSON

Jackson, 74, of Lindale, died Jan. 13, 2011. She received her law degree from Southern Methodist University and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1978.

She practiced law with her husband in Dallas and Lindale in Jackson Law Offices, P.C. before her retirement in 2007. She provided pro bono legal services to the Lindale Library. She is survived by her husband of 53 years, attorney Gary Jackson; sons, David Jackson and Daniel Jackson; brother, Charles Galouye; sister, Yvonne Crawford; and two grandchildren.

WILLIAM ANDERSON SANSING

Sansing, 74, of Athens, died Feb. 7, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1960.

He was a senior judge advocate in the U.S. Air Force Judge Advocate General's Corps from 1960 until his retirement in 1982. From 1983 to 1989, he was enforcement coordinator to the Texas State Board of Public Accountancy in Austin. He was legal counsel to the Texas Department of Commerce in Austin from 1990 until his retirement from the state in 1992. He was a sole practitioner in Austin from 1992 to 2000 and in Athens from 2000 until his death. He served as a Henderson County magistrate. He is survived by his wife of 47 years, Joyce Sansing; daughters, Lea Marie Giberson of Buda, Debra Kay Woods of Oklahoma City, Okla., Mary Elizabeth Ellsworth of Mesa, Ariz., and Rebecca Joyce Adling of Wichita Falls; sister, Sue Sansing of Athens; 23 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

JEFFREY WALLACE HELLBERG

Hellberg, 68, of Amarillo, died March 2, 2011. He received his law degree from Vanderbilt University Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1967. He was a member of the Colorado and Illinois bars. He was an attorney with Dresser Industries in Dallas from 1967 to 1972. From 1973 to 1980, he was a senior attorney with LTV Corporation in Dallas. He was a partner in Underwood, Wilson, Berry, Stein & Johnson in Amarillo from 1981 to 1986 and in Hinkle, Hensley, Shanor & Martin in Amarillo from 1985 to 2004. He is survived by his wife of 22 years, Susan Burns Hellberg; sons, attorney Jeffrey W. Hellberg, Jr. of Dallas and David L. Reynolds of Denver, Colo.; daughters, Maria Orr of Dallas and Elizabeth McDermott of Tiburon, Calif.; brother, Jon Hellberg of Fort Worth; sister, Janet Hosier of Rochester, Minn.; and nine grandchildren.

MEMORIALS

RAYMOND ROSS MORMINO

Mormino, 90, of Waco, died Feb. 9, 2011. He received his law degree from Baylor Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1949. From 1949 to 1952, he was a private practitioner. He served as a McLennan County justice of the peace in Waco from 1953 to 1959. From 1960 to 1970, he served as a McLennan County judge in Waco. He served as judge of the 170th District Court in Waco from 1971 until his retirement in 1989. He served in the U.S. Army Air Force during World War II. He is survived by his wife of 55 years, JoAnn Mormino; sons, Steven Mormino of San Antonio and R. Ross Mormino II, Michael Mormino, Marc Mormino, and Christopher Mormino, all of Waco; daughters, Jamie Mormino and Elizabeth Mormino, both of Waco; and six grandchildren.

RICHARD PAUL "RICK" VIRNIG

Virnig, 55, of Houston, died Oct. 9, 2010. He received his law degree from Duke University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1986. He practiced in Houston as a sole practitioner and for large and small firms. He is survived by his father, Dr. Morris Virnig; and stepmother, Opal Virnig.

ANGELA KARI HITES

Hites, 28, of Dallas, died July 7, 2010. She received her law degree from Baylor Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 2007. She was an associate of Patton Boggs, L.L.P. from 2007 until her death. She is survived by her parents, Kent Hites and Nancy Hites, both of Hillsboro; and sister, Amanda Hites Priewe of Chicago.

WILLIAM HENRY BORCHERS

Borchers, 87, of New Braunfels, died Jan. 2, 2011. He received his law degree from Baylor Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1954. He served as an assistant district attorney with the Harris County District Attornev's Office in Houston from 1954 to 1957. From 1957 to 1959, he was a staff attorney with Carl & Lee in Houston. He was a private practitioner in New Braunfels from 1959 until his death. He was appointed city attorney for the City of New Braunfels in 1965. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. He is survived by daughters, Marcia Borchers McGlothlin of New Braunfels and Bonnie Borchers Duettra of Santa Fe, N.M.: brothers, Dr. Charles L. Borchers of Victoria, Otto R. Borchers of Yoakum, and attorney Marion Jack Borchers of New Braunfels; four grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

CHARLES A. ROBERTSON, JR.

Robertson, 88, of San Antonio, died April 3, 2011. He received his law degree from St. Mary's University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas

Bar in 1949. He was a private practitioner in San Antonio before moving to Midland to practice with Shell Oil Company in the 1950s. He later returned to private practice in San Antonio. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. He is survived by his wife of 30 years, Charlotte Robertson; son, Charles A. Robertson III; and one grandchild.

ANTHONY C. "TONY" AULDS

Aulds, 70, of Thrall, died Jan. 2, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1965. He was an associate of Schenk & Wesbrook in Wichita Falls from 1968 to 1969. He was a title examiner with Texas Land & Title in Austin from 1970 to 1971. From 1972 to 1989, he was a partner in Rattikin & Aulds in Austin. He was head of the title examining department of Gracy Title Company in Austin from 1990 until his retirement in 2005. He served in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Corps during the Vietnam War. He is survived by his wife of 46 years, Ruth Aulds; and mother, A.C. Aulds of Wichita Falls.

W. WADE PORTER

Porter, 58, of Austin, died Feb. 1, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1979.

He served as a briefing attorney to Justice Charles Barrow in Austin from 1979 to 1980. From 1980 to 1987, he was an associate of Fulbright & Jaworski LLP in Austin and Houston. He was a partner in Clark, Thomas & Winters, P.C. from 1987 to 1990; in Haynes and Boone, L.L.P. from 1990 to 2004; and in Allensworth & Porter, L.L.P. from 2004 until his death. He is survived by his wife of 37 years, Rayda Porter; daughter, Stacey Porter of Austin; mother, A.A. Porter of Houston; and brother, C. Clay Porter of Sugar Land.

HARRY N. WARD, JR.

Ward, 77, of Fort Worth, died Feb. 17, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas

Bar in 1957. He served as an attorney in the Tarrant County District Attorney's office in Fort Worth from 1957 to 1962. From 1962 to 1995, he was a private practitioner. He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Marian M. Ward; son, Harry N. Ward III of Dallas; daughters, Laura Gruber of Austin and Mimi Benoist of Fort Worth; and six grandchildren.

542 Texas Bar Journal • June 2011 www.texasbar.com

E.L. "TOBY" GOLDSMITH

Goldsmith, 83, of Fort Worth, died Feb. 15, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas

Bar in 1954. He was a criminal defense attorney in Fort Worth for 57 years. For seven years, he served as judge of the Tarrant County Criminal District Court #1. He served as a U.S. Merchant Marine. He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Martha Jane Sargent Goldsmith; daughters, Cynthia Wooten and Amy Goldsmith; brother, James Floyd "Jimmy" Goldsmith; sister, Linda Bagby; and three grandchildren.

ARTURO JOSE IÑIGUEZ

Iñiguez, 26, of Brownsville, died March 19, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Houston Law Center and was admitted to the Texas

Bar in 2010. He was an assistant district attorney with the Cameron County District Attorney's Office in Brownsville from 2010 until his death. He is survived by his wife of five years, Lorena G. Iñiguez; daughter, Camila Iñiguez of Brownsville; mother, Maria Elena Alvarez De Lugo of Brownsville; and sister, Lorena Y. Iñiguez of Houston.

ROBERT RICHARD MARQUARDT

Marquardt, 67, of Plano, died Sept. 22, 2010. He received his law degree from the University of Arkansas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 2002. He was a member of the Iowa and New Jersey bars. He was an attorney with the RCA Corporation before serving as vice president and general counsel to Occidental Chemical Corp. in Dallas until 2002. He served in the U.S. Air Force and the U.S. Air Force Reserve Judge Advocate General's Corps. He is survived by his wife of 21 years, Patricia M. Marquardt; sons, Zachariah R. Marquardt and Christopher G. Marquardt; daughters, Theresa M. Marquardt, Susan E. Peek, and Katherine P. Mahler; brother, Ted Marquardt of Fanwood, N.J.; sister, Dolores Gaynor of Tracy, Calif.; and three grandchildren.

JOHN ANDREW WALLER, JR.

Waller, 80, of Austin, died Nov. 22, 2010. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1955. He served as an assistant city attorney with the City of Dallas from 1955 to 1956 and for the City of Corpus Christi in 1956. He was a private practitioner in Corpus Christi from 1957 to 1976 and in Austin from 1976 until his death. He served as president of the Nueces County Bar Association. He is survived by his wife of 58 years, Carolyn King Waller; daughters, Lisa Waller, attorney Loise King Waller, and Leigh Mezzetti, all of Austin, and Laura Waller of Liberty Hill; 12 grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

H. KYLE SEALE

Seale, 87, of San Antonio, died Feb. 26, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1949. He practiced law in Abilene before opening his own practice in San Antonio, where he practiced from 1950 until his death. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. He is survived by his wife of 25 years, Billie G. Seale; sons, Daniel K. Seale and Stephen M. Seale; daughters, Kathleen Withers, Carolyn Seale, Victoria Seale, and Marian Freeland; stepdaughters, Kristin Daniel and Kendra Clark; 12 grandchildren; four step-grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

FRANK FEUILLE IV

Feuille, 68, of El Paso, died March 14, 2011. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1966. He was a senior partner in Scott, Hulse, Marshall, Feuille, Finger & Thurman (now Scott Hulse, P.C.) from 1971 until his retirement in 2008. He served in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Corps. He is survived by his wife of 44 years, Elizabeth R. Feuille; sons, Frank Feuille V of El Paso and Forrest M. Feuille of Dallas; daughter, Mary Elizabeth McComas of Bangkok, Thailand; and five grandchildren.

RICHARD DOBBS STRAHAN

Strahan, 83, of Houston, died Nov. 22, 2010. He received his law degree from the University of Houston Law Center and was admitted to the Texas

Bar in 1965. He was a partner in Richard Strahan, Attorney at Law from 1972 to 1989. From 1989 to 1997, he was a partner in Strahan & Kirk. He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Gladys "Gigi" Strahan; sons, Richard Strahan of Austin, Randall Strahan of Decatur, Ga., and Russell Strahan of Round Rock; daughter, Sharon Strahan; and six grandchildren.

CHARLES B. WOOD

Wood, 71, of Austin, died Dec. 14, 2010. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1967. He was a private practitioner in Austin before serving as a City of Austin municipal judge. He served in the U.S. Air Force. He is survived by his son, Charles B. Wood, Jr. of Austin; daughter, Martha M. Wood of Austin; brother, Jack Wood of Nevada; and two grandchildren. •