Alexandra Lambring

Alexandra "Alex" Lambring is a second-year associate at Verner Brumley Mueller Parker P.C., in Dallas, where she practices family law. She was raised in the DFW area, earned her bachelor's degree from Oklahoma State University, and graduated from SMU Dedman School of Law. Alex is a member of the Dallas Bar Association and the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers where she enjoys serving as a co-chair for the Equal Access to Justice Committee, which focuses on providing increased access to the Dallas Courts for traditionally disadvantaged segments of the Dallas community. She also enjoys volunteering for local organizations such as Dallas CASA and has served as a volunteer judge for the Dallas ISD high school mock trial competition. When not volunteering or working, Alex enjoys spending time with her fiancé, Blaine, and enjoying the outdoors with her basset hound, Blue Jeans, and her silver lab, Ellie.
