Bailey Bridges

Bailey Bridges brings passion to everything she does, including her work as a commercial litigator at BakerHostetler and giving back to her local legal communities. Bridges cherishes the diversity that Houston represents and understands the wide array of needs its lawyers have. Bridges' dedication to her community is reflected in her service as Houston Bar Association Membership Committee co-chair, Houston Bar Association CLE Committee member, Houston Young Lawyers Association Leadership Academy co-chair, Institute of Energy Law's Young Energy Professional Committee member, and an active member of Houston's Garland R. Walker American Inn of Court. She also serves on her firm's Women's Committee where she strives to promote women empowerment in the workplace. As a first generation attorney, Bridges makes it her mission to foster community and spread legal education.
