

Chris Pineda is an attorney with the federal government in Brownsville, Texas. The first lawyer in his family, Pineda has been active in various local, state, and national bar organizations. He is currently a board member of the State Bar of Texas Hispanic Issues Section and a member of the State Bar of Texas Law Focused Education Committee. He is a graduate of LeadershipSBOT (2017-2018 class), and is a past president of the Cameron County Bar Association (2016-17) after having served as a CCBA officer in several roles since 2013. Pineda is also a past Brownsville Division Director of the Federal Bar Association South Texas chapter (2018-2019) and a past director of the Cameron County Young Lawyers Association (2010-14). Pineda earned his B.A. from the University of Texas at Austin in 2001, his Master in Public Policy (MPP) from the Harvard Kennedy School in 2005, and his J.D. from Boston University School of Law in 2009.