

Mark Stromberg has employed his analytical skills to achieve successful and cost-effective resolutions to complex commercial and litigation disputes for over 30 years. His clients consist of businesses and individuals, including financial institutions, insurers, leasing companies, and privately-held businesses in multiple industries. His practice focuses on creditor's rights, bankruptcy (representing creditors), and complex commercial litigation in state and federal courts.