The Terry Lee Grantham Memorial Award was endowed through the Texas Bar Foundation in 2014 by Terry Lee Grantham’s family and friends. As an enduring tribute to Terry’s life and work in the practice of law, this award is made annually to an outstanding Texas lawyer. The award celebrates Terry’s life as a gifted and committed man and lawyer who devoted himself completely to every task he undertook. Each recipient of this award must exemplify the qualities of an accomplished, talented and dedicated practitioner, a servant of the profession and an advocate for those we serve, demonstrating dedication and service with the same passion that defined Terry’s life and work.

HARRELL FELDT, Kerrville

H arrell Feldt is the inaugural recipient of the Terry Lee Grantham Memorial Award. Feldt exemplifies the spirit of this award by serving as a relentless advocate, dedicated attorney and experienced mentor. Feldt graduated from the University of Texas School of Law in 1963 and joined the law firm of Stubbeman, McRae, Sealy, Laughlin & Browder in Midland. During his time in Midland, Feldt acted as President of the Chamber of Commerce. In 1986, Feldt became a partner at Vinson and Elkins in Houston where he was co-chair of the oil and gas litigation practice group. Feldt currently practices in his office in Kerrville. Feldt became a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers in 1986, and is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates. He served as Vice President of the Texas Association of Defense Counsel in 1974 and served as Director in 1985. Feldt is a Life Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation. The Texas Tech University School of Law, where Terry graduated in 1982, will receive $5,000 for a scholarship in the study of energy law, in honor of Feldt.
The Gregory S. Coleman Outstanding Appellate Lawyer Award was established in 2011 in honor and memory of Gregory S. Coleman. The award celebrates the high ideals and standards that Greg demonstrated in his appellate practice and personal life. The recipient should exhibit an outstanding appellate practice while maintaining a strong commitment to providing legal services for the underserved. Dedication to mentoring young attorneys should be evident as well as a strong moral compass to guide both professional and personal pursuits.

MIKE A. HATCHELL, Austin

Mike A. Hatchell is an accomplished appellate attorney who demonstrates a passion for the law, outstanding public service and high standards, similar to those of Gregory S. Coleman. Hatchell graduated from the University of Texas School of Law in 1964. Upon graduating, he worked as briefing attorney to Honorable Meade F. Griffin of the Supreme Court of Texas for one year. Hatchell spent the next 36 years at Ramey & Flock, P.C., in Tyler, after which he worked with his wife, Molly, at Hatchell PC. In 2004, he joined Locke Lord LLP, and currently serves as head of the firm’s appellate practice group.

During his career, Hatchell has been lead counsel in over 150 appeals and has appeared in all fourteen courts of appeals in Texas. Hatchell has argued 47 cases, been counsel in 94 cases, and obtained relief for clients in 88 cases from the Texas Supreme Court. Hatchell was an organizer, founding member and past Chairman of the State Bar of Texas Appellate Practice and Advocacy Section. He is also the longest serving member on the Texas Supreme Court Advisory Committee and is one of 300 elected members of the American Academy of Appellate Lawyers. As an essential part of his legal career, Hatchell mentors young lawyers, encourages and participates in making legal services accessible to all and participates in various pro bono projects. Hatchell is a Life Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation.
Ronald D. Secrest Outstanding Trial Lawyer Award

The firm of Beck Redden LLP established the award in honor and memory of Mr. Secrest, a gifted trial lawyer and a founding partner of the firm. The Ronald D. Secrest Outstanding Trial Lawyer Award was established to recognize an active trial lawyer. The award recognizes a trial lawyer who, in his or her practice, has demonstrated high ethical and moral standards and has demonstrated exceptional professional conduct, thus enhancing the image of the trial lawyer.

MARK LANIER, Houston

Mark Lanier is an ethical, civil and professional trial lawyer with a strong moral compass. Lanier graduated from Texas Tech University School of Law in 1984. After graduation, Lanier began working for Fulbright & Jaworski in Houston. In 1990, he founded The Lanier Law Firm. Throughout his career, his renowned litigation skills and exceptional professional conduct has resulted in billions of dollars in trial verdicts and international recognition. The National Law Journal has named Lanier one of the nation’s Top 10 Trial Attorneys, as well as one of the 100 Most Influential Lawyers in America of the Decade. In addition to being a distinguished trial attorney, Lanier is also a teacher, pastor and published author. Lanier is a religious man who teaches a large Sunday school study class, focusing on biblical literacy. He is the founder of the Christian Trial Lawyers Association and Lanier Theological Library, which is one of the nation’s largest private theological collections. Lanier is a strong supporter of various charities, including Guatemala SANA. In 2011, Lanier was bestowed the distinguished Ambassador of Peace award by the Guatemalan government. Lanier remains active at his alma mater, Texas Tech University, by serving on the Law School’s Foundation Board. Lanier was selected as the Texas Tech University School of Law Distinguished Alumnus in 2005. Lanier is a Sustaining Life Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation.

Dan Rugeley Price Memorial Award

The Dan Rugeley Price Memorial Award was established by friends and family and endowed through the Texas Bar Foundation in June 1996. The recipient exemplifies the qualities of an accomplished legal writer and researcher, a talented and dedicated practicing lawyer, a servant of the profession as a volunteer and an advocate on its behalf. The recipient exhibits an unreserved commitment to clients and to the practice of our profession, and demonstrates dedication to the Bar and service to the public with the same commitment, dedication and zeal which defined Dan Price’s life and work.
BYRON F. EGAN, Dallas

Byron F. Egan exhibits excellence in his practice of business law and is a model of a servant of the profession. Egan has worked to advance the knowledge and understanding of the law through his practice, dedication to the Bar, extensive CLE speeches and scholarly articles. After graduating from the University of Texas School of Law, Egan served as a law clerk for Honorable Irving L. Goldberg on the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Egan, partner of Jackson Walker L.L.P., is engaged in a corporate, partnership, securities, mergers and acquisitions, and financing practice. Egan served as Chair of the State Bar’s Business Law Section and was a founding director and twice Chair of the Texas Business Law Foundation. Egan strives to enhance the legal profession by unselfishly sharing his knowledge and experience through countless publications and CLE speeches at local, state and national bar activities. He also acts as Senior Vice Chair and Chair of Executive Council of the Mergers and Acquisitions Committee of the American Bar Association. Egan is an elected member of the American Law Institute. In 2009, Egan was the recipient of the Franklin Jones Outstanding CLE Article Award and has received the Burton Award for Legal Achievement four times. Egan is a Life Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation. A $1,000 donation has been made in Egan’s name to the University of Texas School of Law.

Samuel Pessarra Outstanding Jurist Award

In 1987, the Texas Bar Foundation created the Outstanding Jurist Award to honor an active federal or state judge. In 1995, the Foundation received a bequest to the endowment from the estate of Mrs. Samuel Pessarra in honor of her late husband for the purpose of funding the Outstanding Jurist Award. The award was renamed the Samuel Pessarra Outstanding Jurist Award in 1995. The recipient must have served on the bench for a minimum of 10 years and exhibit an exceptionally outstanding reputation for competency, efficiency and integrity.

JUSTICE ANNE GARDNER, Fort Worth

Upon graduating from the University of Texas School of Law in 1966, where she was Associate Editor of the Texas Law Review, Justice Gardner served as Law Clerk for the Honorable Leo Brewster, U.S. District Judge, Northern District of Texas. For the following 30 years, Justice Gardner practiced law, the last twelve of which were as partner with Shannon, Gracey, Ratliff & Miller, where she was Chair of the firm’s appellate section. In 2000, Justice Gardner was appointed by Governor George W. Bush to the Second Court of Appeals. In addition to her integrity, professionalism and temperament, Justice Gardner is regarded for her outstanding legal research, analysis and reasoning. In 2005, she was named Appellate Justice of the Year by the Texas Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates. She created the Second Court of Appeal’s Pro Bono Program, in which volunteer appellate lawyers screen and represent indigent clients. Justice Gardner has served on numerous boards and committees, including the Texas Supreme Court Advisory Committee and the Texas Board of Legal Specialization’s Advisory Committee on Appellate Civil Law. She is a member of the American Law Institute. Justice Gardner was the first woman elected President of the Tarrant County Bar Association in 1994. Justice Gardner is a Sustaining Life Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation. The University of Texas School of Law received a $1,000 gift from the Texas Bar Foundation in honor of Justice Gardner.
The Lola Wright Foundation Award, established in 1985, is presented in memory of Coleman Gay, who was a distinguished Texas lawyer and who exemplified the highest standards of professional ethics. The award is presented in recognition for outstanding public service in advancing and enhancing legal ethics in Texas.

CHARLIE WILSON, Dallas

Charlie Wilson demonstrates strong professionalism and legal ethics through his law practice, extensive teaching and speaking engagements, and exceptional bar service. Wilson is recognized for his outstanding public service in advancing legal ethics in Texas and is an extraordinary model of professionalism and ethical behavior. Wilson graduated from the University of Texas School of Law in 1974. Board certified in family law, personal injury trial law and civil trial law for over 30 years, Wilson is now of counsel at GoransonBain. In addition to his practice, Wilson also taught Trial Advocacy at the SMU Dedman School of Law. Wilson served as an elected member of the State Bar’s Board of Directors from 1991 to 1994, during which time he was editor of the Texas Bar Journal.

Wilson is a frequent speaker for the State Bar and local bar associations and has authored more than 100 articles for CLE. Wilson is a charter member of the College of the State Bar of Texas. Wilson also served as Chair of the District 6 Grievance Committee in Dallas, in 2000, and as Chair of the Board of Trustees for the Texas Center for Legal Ethics in 2011. Wilson received the Gene Cavin Award from the State Bar of Texas in 1991, recognizing outstanding lifetime contributions to the CLE; a Presidential Citation for outstanding contributions to the State Bar of Texas in 1999; and the Jim Bowmer Award for Professionalism, from the College of the State Bar in 2008. Wilson is a Sustaining Life Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation and served on the Board of Trustees as Chair in 2000. A $5,000 donation from the Texas Bar Foundation has been made in Wilson’s name to the SMU Dedman School of Law.

ROBERT K. WISE, Dallas

Robert K. Wise is a proficient author, having written a book on Texas written discovery and numerous law review articles on a variety of topics. Mr. Wise graduated from the William & Mary School of Law in 1977, where he was an editor of the William & Mary Law Review. Since completing his clerkship for Honorable Paul C. Weick of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, Mr. Wise has practiced law in Dallas. In 2009, Mr. Wise left Hunton & Williams LLP to form Lillard Wise Szygenda PLLC. His practice centers on complex business and energy-related litigation. Mr. Wise has tried more than thirty lawsuits and arbitrations and has argued more than thirty appeals in both Texas and federal appellate courts. He also taught legal writing at the SMU Dedman School of Law, participated in the Pro Bono College of the State Bar of Texas in 2009 and 2010, has been named a “Texas Super Lawyer” many times, was named both a “Litigator” and an “Appellate Lawyer” of the week by Texas Lawyers Magazine, and is a member of the American Bar Association and the Dallas Bar Association, having served as the past-Chair and past-Vice Chair of the DBA’s Legal-Ethics Committee and as a current member of its Business Litigation Council.

KATHERINE HENDLER FAYNE, Dallas

Katherine Hendler Fayne graduated from New York University School of Law in 2001. Upon graduating, Fayne clerked for Honorable Jorge A. Solis, U.S. District Judge, Northern District of Texas. After completing her clerkship, Fayne began her litigation career at Arnold & Porter LLP in Washington, D.C. In 2004, she returned to her hometown and joined Fish & Richardson, P.C. in Dallas, where she practiced commercial litigation until 2007 when she began working as a chambers law clerk for Honorable Sam A. Lindsay, U.S. District Judge, Northern District of Texas. Fayne joined Lillard Wise Szygenda PLLC in 2010 as a senior associate. Fayne is a member of the Dallas Bar Association and of Attorneys Serving the Community. Fayne is also a leadership council member of the Junior League of Dallas. Fayne was recognized as “Texas Rising Star” by Texas Super Lawyers in 2013, 2014, and 2015. St. Mary’s University School of Law will receive a $1,000 donation from the Texas Bar Foundation in honor of Robert K. Wise and Katherine Hendler Fayne.
The Outstanding 50 Year Lawyer Award was the first award established by the Texas Bar Foundation, in 1974. The award recognizes attorneys whose practice spanned fifty years or more, and who adhere to the highest principles and traditions of the legal profession and service to the public.

DAVID J. BECK, Houston

David J. Beck graduated from Lamar University and received his L.L.B. from the University of Texas School of Law in 1964. Following law school, Beck joined the law firm of Fulbright & Jaworski in Houston. In 1992, Beck cofounded the litigation firm Beck, Redden and Secrest LLP, now known as Beck Redden LLP. Throughout his 50 years of practice, Beck has consistently been recognized as one of our country’s best trial lawyers. Beck was President of the State Bar of Texas in 1995 and served as President of the American College of Trial Lawyers in 2006. He is a member of the Warren E. Burger Society for the National Center for State Courts. Beck is a Fellow and current Chair of the Texas Supreme Court Historical Society. Additionally, Beck remains actively involved with his alma mater. He is a Life Member of the University of Texas Law School Foundation Board of Trustees and served as President in 2006. Beck was recognized as Distinguished Alumnus of Lamar University in 1999, Outstanding Alumnus of the University of Texas Law School in 2000, and Distinguished Alumnus of the University of Texas at Austin in 2010. In 2013 Beck was appointed by the UT Regents to UT Austin Intercollegiate Athletic Council for Men. Governor Greg Abbott recently appointed Beck to the University of Texas Board of Regents. Beck is a Sustaining Life Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation and served as the Chair of the Board of Trustees in 1985. He is also a member of the District 4 Nominating Committee.

BUCK FILES, Tyler

Buck Files is a criminal defense lawyer. He was a member of the charter class to be certified as a specialist in criminal law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and later served on that board. He is a charter member and former Director of the Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association and has been inducted into TCDLA’s Hall of Fame. He is only the second criminal defense lawyer to serve as President of the State Bar. As a Director of the State Bar, he received the Outstanding Third Year Director Award and a Presidential Citation. The Criminal Justice Section of the State Bar has named him the Outstanding Defense Lawyer of the Year and presented him with a Lifetime Achievement Award. Among his other honors are TBL’s Tom Garner Award, the Bar Association of the Eastern District of Texas John Hannah Award for Public Service and the Smith County Bar Association’s Justinian Award. Buck is a Marine and spent 47 months on active duty. He served as a prosecutor at the first general court martial convened by the Marine Corps in Vietnam. He was an assistant and first assistant criminal district attorney in Smith County before entering private practice. He earned his B.A. degree at Austin College and his M.L.A. and J.D. degrees at Southern Methodist University. Buck is a founding member and shareholder of Bain, Files, Jarrett, Bain and Harrison, P.C. in Tyler. On September 8th, he and Robyn will have been married for 52 years.
PHIL HARDBERGER, San Antonio

Phil Hardberger, shareholder of Dykema Cox Smith, was born in Morton, Texas. Hardberger earned his B.A. from Baylor University, his M.S. from Columbia University, and his LL.B. from the Georgetown University Law Center. Hardberger’s legal career began in Washington, D.C., where he was Executive Secretary of the U.S. Peace Corps and then Assistant Director of the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity. Hardberger was a litigator for over 25 years before serving as Associate Justice and then as Chief Justice on the Fourth Court of Appeals. In 2005, Hardberger was elected Mayor of San Antonio and served for two terms. During his tenure as San Antonio Mayor, he succeeded in extending the mayoral term limits, worked diligently to continue the San Antonio River expansion, transformed thousands of lives with Haven for Hope, celebrated the opening of Toyota’s assembly plant in San Antonio, and was one of the first mayors to provide assistance to the victims of Katrina. In recognition of Hardberger’s leadership and foresight in championing quality of life projects, the City of San Antonio recently announced it was naming a new major park after him. The 311-acre property known as the Voelcker Dairy Farm is now Phil Hardberger Park. Hardberger is a Sustaining Life Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation and received the Outstanding Law Review Article Award in 1999.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE DAVID HITTNER, Houston

United States District Judge David Hittner grew up in Brooklyn, New York. He earned his B.S. from New York University and graduated from New York University School of Law in 1964. After obtaining his law degree, Judge Hittner entered the United States Army and served as an Infantry Captain and Paratrooper. After completion of his active duty, he was in private law practice for 12 years in Houston, Texas. In 1978, he was appointed Judge of the 133rd District Court of Texas and subsequently elected twice. He was nominated by President Ronald Reagan to the bench of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas in 1986. He assumed senior status on November 11, 2004. Among his most distinguished honors are the American College of Trial Lawyers Samuel E. Gates Award, the College’s highest recognition for improvement of the litigation process in the United States, and the Presidents’ Award of the State Bar of Texas, its highest recognition. Judge Hittner is the pioneer behind the nationally renowned “Saturday Morning in Court” program, which spanned 26 years as an educational how-to-practice seminar for state and federal court practitioners. He is an Eagle Scout and, as an adult leader, has been recognized by the Boy Scouts of America with the Silver Beaver, Silver Antelope and Distinguished Eagle Scout Awards. Additionally, he has been active in the Masonic fraternity for over 45 years and is one of the few members in the United States to hold the Mason’s highest designation, the Thirty-third Degree. For many years, has been a guitar-playing member of a country and western band, Judge Hittner is a Life Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation and received the Lola Wright Foundation Award in 1985. He is a member of the American Law Institute, the author of a three-volume book on federal civil practice and procedure, and has published over 80 legal articles, including 14 law review articles.
DARRELL E. JORDAN, Dallas

Darrell E. Jordan, partner of Diamond McCarthy LLP, grew up in McAllen, Texas. He earned his B.A. from the University of Texas and graduated from the SMU Dedman School of Law in 1964. Jordan served as President of the Dallas Bar Association, as a member of the Board of Governors and on the Executive Committee of the American Bar Association. In 1989, during his time as President of the State Bar of Texas, Jordan worked to preserve and protect the IOLTA program. He is a 2005 Distinguished Alumnus of the Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law and a former president of the Texas Supreme Court Historical Society. He is board certified in Civil Trial Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates. Jordan’s community involvement extends to political activism and civic service throughout Dallas and Texas. He actively serves on the boards of several local organizations including the Methodist Health System Foundation, Greater Dallas Planning Council, Southwestern Medical Foundation, Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law, the SMU Athletic Forum and the Dallas Summer Musicals. Jordan is a Life Fellow of the American and Dallas Bar Foundations. He is a Sustaining Life Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation and also served as a Nominating Committee member for District 6.

DEE J. KELLY, Fort Worth

Dee J. Kelly, founding partner of Kelly Hart & Hallman LLP, was born in Bonham, Texas. He earned his B.A. from Texas Christian University and his law degree from George Washington University Law School, while working for Speaker of the House, Sam Rayburn. Kelly served in the Air Force for 26 months during the Korean War and was discharged in 1953. He was in solo practice for a number of years before founding Kelly Hart & Hallman LLP, in 1979. Kelly was recognized as a Distinguished Alumnus of both George Washington University and Texas Christian University, and in 1994 the Alumni Center at TCU was dedicated in his honor. Among his many honors, Kelly has been the recipient of Fort Worth’s Outstanding Citizen Award, Fort Worth’s Business Executive of the Year, the Horatio Alger Award, and the Blackstone Award, given by the Tarrant County Bar Association to the year’s outstanding lawyer. In 1999 the Fort Worth Star-Telegram named Kelly one of the ten most influential leaders in Tarrant County in the second half of the Twentieth Century. Additionally, Kelly was named Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Longhorn Council of the Boy Scouts of America in 2003. Kelly is a Charter member and Sustaining Life Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation.
