TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW invites applications from exceptional individuals for a tenured or tenure-track position teaching Criminal Law and related courses. Applicants must possess a J.D. degree and have relevant experience such as teaching, legal practice, or a judicial clerkship. Appointment may be made at the Assistant, Associate, or full Professor level. Entry-level candidates must show scholarly promise, as evidenced by publications in scholarly journals, scholarly works in progress, or a scholarly agenda. For lateral applicants, a distinguished record of teaching and scholarship is required. Once hired, faculty members are evaluated and advancement is determined by contributions in teaching, research, and service to the law school and the university.

Texas Tech University, located in Lubbock, Texas, is a state-supported National Research University with an enrollment that exceeds 35,000 students. The law school has approximately 630 students and 37 full-time faculty members. The law school is an integral part of the University and offers 9 dual-degree programs with other Texas Tech schools and colleges. The Lubbock metropolitan area is home to almost 300,000 people, enjoys affordable housing, abundant sunshine, friendly people, and offers easy access to other parts of the country. For more information, visit our website at www.law.ttu.edu.

As an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, Texas Tech University is dedicated to building a culturally diverse faculty committed to teaching and working in a multicultural environment. We actively encourage applications from all those who can contribute, through their research, teaching, and/or service, to the diversity and excellence of the academic community at Texas Tech University. The university welcomes applications from minorities, women, veterans, persons with disabilities, and dual-career couples.

Further information about the law school is available at www.law.ttu.edu. Please submit your cover letter, resume, and contact information for three professional references electronically to the attention of the chair of the Personnel Committee, Eric A. Chiappinelli, Frank McDonald Endowed Professor of Law, at the Texas Tech Jobs website <https://jobs.texastech.edu> or www.workattexas.com. Please reference Requisition Number 4733BR. You may contact Professor Chiappinelli directly at eric.chiappinelli@ttu.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.
