

Punam Kaji is Assistant General Counsel at Ben E. Keith Company, a food and alcohol distributor. Her practice focuses on employment and litigation matters for the Company, and she is Board Certified in Labor and Employment law. Punam's expertise comes from years of counseling and litigating employment law matters for clients while working at Haynes and Boone, LLP in the firm's Fort Worth, Dallas, and Houston offices. Punam has served on countless boards and community organizations, including serving on the Diversity Committee of the Tarrant County Bar Association, the South Asian Bar Association of Houston, and the Dallas Asian American Bar Association. Punam is a current Council Member and Past Chair of the Asian Pacific Interest Section of the State Bar of Texas.