

Lynn Bradshaw:

I am a member of the SBOT Women in Profession Committee. I work part-time for the Texas Board of Law Examiners. I have practiced litigation for more than 30 years, working on cases where I believe I can make a difference. In 2012, I also received my Master of Arts degree at the University of Texas in Art History with an emphasis on Women's and Gender Studies. I am now a Board Member for the University's Center for Women's and Gender Studies.
