These biographies are provided to inform voters about the candidates for State Bar director, District 4, Place 4.

JoAnne Musick for District 4, Place 4

JoAnne Musick recently served as lead prosecutor of human trafficking and sex crimes for the Harris County District Attorney's Office and now heads up the bureau prosecuting cyber and white collar crimes. She has tried over 100 cases to juries in state and federal court and is Board Certified in both Criminal Law and Juvenile Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. She was twice elected President of the Harris County Criminal Lawyers Association, the largest independent local criminal bar association in the United States. She is also an avid CLE presenter. While in private practice for some fifteen years, JoAnne practiced family law in addition to criminal defense. She has been named a "Rising Star" and a "Super Lawyer." Prior to becoming a lawyer, JoAnne worked in accounting and technology for both a national grocer and a national oil and gas investment banking firm. She has served on homeowner association boards, Houston Bar Association's Criminal Law and Procedure Section, and Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association. JoAnne is a 1998 graduate of South Texas College of Law and has a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Sam Houston State University. JoAnne resides in Houston with her daughter.
