District Director Elections – 2020 Uncontested Race

These biographies are provided to inform voters about the candidates for State Bar director, District 11.

Carra Miller for District 11

Carra Miller advocates transparency, grievance reform, and prioritization of policies that advance lawyers' needs and interests. She supports senior and other CLE discounts, measures that assist new parents and others experiencing challenging life-circumstances, and requirements that grievances be sworn under penalty of perjury and subject to a clear & convincing evidentiary standard. A courthouse lawyer, Carra practices Admiralty & Maritime Litigation and General Civil Litigation at Welder Leshin LLP in Corpus Christi. She is a member of the Texas Bar College and the Pro Bono College of the State Bar of Texas. Championing access to justice, she volunteers for and has promoted attorney participation in Texas Legal Answers, a virtual legal aid clinic, at the state and local levels. The ABA has recognized her pro bono efforts. Carra serves on the Texas Young Lawyers Association Attorney Wellness and Competitions committees. She is a board member of the Texas Aggie Bar Association, the Southeastern Admiralty Law Institute, and the Corpus Christi Young Lawyers Association. While earning her Juris Doctor from Tulane Law School, Carra served as Editor-in-Chief of the Tulane Environmental Law Journal. She is also a graduate of Texas A&M, where she received a degree in Maritime Administration. Carra is married to a sea captain, and enjoys reading and an occasional good whiskey.
