

LEE J. BROOKSHIRE JR.

Brookshire, 84, of Fort Worth, died July 19, 2020. He served in the U.S. Army National Guard. Brookshire received his law degree from Baylor Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1965. He managed Navarro Savings and Loan Association in Corsicana and was general counsel to Colonial Savings in Fort Worth. Brookshire will be remembered for his love, service, compassion, humility, hospitality, and generosity. He played the piano, had a love of music, and enjoyed art and reading. Brookshire is survived by his wife of 25 years, Linda Haggard Brookshire; daughters, Britt Brookshire and Carlye Brookshire; sister, Jan Osgood; and one grandchild.

JACK N. BOYD JR.

Boyd, 61, of Texarkana, died December 9, 2019. He received his law degree from the University of Houston Law Center and was admitted to the Texas

Bar in 1985. Boyd was admitted to the Arkansas Bar in 1989. He was an associate of Townsend Brodsky Learman Levy & Ketchum in Houston from 1985 to 1989; an associate of Hubbard, Patton, Peek, Haltom & Roberts in Texarkana from 1989 to 1992; a partner in Crisp & Jordan, later Crisp, Jordan & Boyd, in Texarkana; and was a solo practitioner in Texarkana at the time of his death. Boyd was certified in personal injury trial law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. He loved spending time with his family. Boyd was an avid hunter and outdoorsman, and he could fix anything or take on any project—big or small. He could always be found on his skid steer or tractor, improving his own or someone else's property. Boyd is survived by his wife of 40 years, Tena Gammill Boyd; sons, attorney Jake Boyd and Josh Boyd; mother, Melba Roberts Boyd; brother, Michael Boyd; and sisters, Mindy Boyd Laffety and Becky Boyd.

CHARLES K. STEPHENSON

Stephenson, 86, of Kerrville, died September 5, 2020. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps and was honorably discharged in 1954.

Stephenson received his law degree from South Texas College of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1964. He was admitted to practice before the U.S. Courts of Appeals for the 5th and 11th circuits. Stephenson was managing partner in Stephenson & Moore, Stephenson-Anderson & Associates, and Stephenson & Lowry in Houston from 1975 to 2019, and he was a municipal judge and magistrate in Marfa from 2017 to 2019. He was recognized as a 50-year lawyer by the State Bar of Texas. Stephenson was known for his philanthropy work, with a special interest in the Rotary Club. He had a passion for sports, both as a spectator and participating in college football, track, and tennis. Stephenson is survived by his son, Charles K. "Ken" Stephenson Jr.; daughter, Dana Jo Stephenson Koehn; and four grandchildren.

JIM ARNOLD JR.

Arnold, 72, of Austin, died November 4, 2020. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1973. Arnold began his legal career with Texas Rural Legal Aid, now Texas RioGrande Legal Aid, in the Rio Grande Valley before he established Arnold and Associates in Austin. He was certified in civil trial law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. Arnold remained an active litigator throughout his career. He enjoyed hiking, rock climbing, and ranching. Arnold dabbled in real estate development and started an organic apple orchard. He is survived by his wife of 43 years, Patty Arnold, and daughters, Jenny Arnold, Katie Arnold, and Julie Arnold.

MICHAEL M. "MICKEY" WADE

Wade, 77, of Temple, died June 13, 2020. He received his law degree from Southern Methodist University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1967. Wade served in the U.S. Navy Judge Advocate General's Corps from 1968 to 1971. He was an associate of Lee Curtis Law in Belton from 1971 to 1972, a partner in Curtis & Wade in Belton from 1972 to 1979, city attorney for Belton from 1976 to 1978, a solo practitioner in Belton from 1979 to 2019, and a municipal judge in Belton from 1995 to 2007. Wade served on the State Bar of Texas Grievance Committee for District 8 from 1974 to 1981 and was president of the Bell, Lampasas, and Mill counties bar associations from 1977 to 1978. He was mayor of Belton from 1986 to 1989 and served as president of the Bell County Child Welfare Board in 1981 and the Belton Area Chamber of Commerce in 1973. Wade loved the practice of law and considered helping his clients "a calling." His hobbies included golf, reading, and spending time with his family. Wade is survived by his wife of 53 years, Jane Sewell Wade; sons, Ben Wade and attorney Cliff Wade; daughter, Julianne Wade Davis; and six grandchildren.

GLENN F. VANCE

Vance, 65, of Paige, died December 11, 2020. He received his law degree from St. Mary's University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1989. Vance was an associate of James E. Porter from 1989 to 1991, with the Texas Attorney General's Office as an assistant attorney general in the Child Support Division from 1991 to 1993, an assistant senior field attorney in the Rio Grande Valley, Laredo, and Corpus Christi from 1993 to 1994, a managing attorney in San Antonio from 1994 to 1996, and Forms Section chief in Austin from 1996 to 2015. He was involved in various church ministries ranging from teaching Sunday school to being a mentor to ex-offenders at a Christian transition house. Vance was an avid San Antonio Spurs fan. He enjoyed gardening and establishing a country ranch for his family. Vance is survived by his wife of 14 years, Debbi Vance; sons, Michael Taylor and Alex Taylor; daughter, Annelise Jones; and two grandchildren.

BARTON EDWARD BERNSTEIN

Bernstein, 90, of Dallas, died December 19, 2020. He served in the U.S. Navy from 1953 to 1956. Bernstein received his law degree from Boston University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1957. He practiced family law with Hochberg & Bernstein in Dallas for 40 years. Bernstein enjoyed sailing and playing the washtub. He was an avid historian, particularly presidential history. Bernstein is survived by his wife, Donna Bernstein; son, Alon Samuel Bernstein; daughter, Talya Bernstein Galaganov; sisters, Rona Mae Soberg and Berna Gae Haberman; and four grandchildren.

ROBERT W. WACHSMUTH

Wachsmuth, 78, of San Antonio, died December 15, 2020. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps Judge Advocate General's Corps and the Reserve from 1965 to 1969, including service in Vietnam. Wachsmuth received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1966. He was president of Robert Wachsmuth & Associates in San Antonio. Wachsmuth was a member of the San Antonio Bar Association. He was a member of St. Thomas Episcopal Church. Wachsmuth enjoyed Texas Longhorns' sports and golfing. He is survived by his wife of 21 years, Karin Kusiak-Wachsmuth; son, Matthew Wachsmuth; daughters, Ashley Bass and Wendi Wachsmuth; stepson, Daniel Kusiak; brother, Tom Wachsmuth; and four grandchildren.

RICE M. TILLEY JR.

Tilley, 84, of Fort Worth, died October 28, 2020. He served in the U.S. Army from 1962 to 1964 and was honorably discharged as a captain. Tilley received his law degree from Southern Methodist University School of Law, his LL.M. in tax law from New York University School of Law, and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1961. He was a partner in Law, Snakard & Gambill in Fort Worth from 1964 to 2004 and senior counsel to Haynes and Boone in Fort Worth from 2005 to 2014. In 2014, Tilley received the Texas A&M University School of Law Lifetime Achievement Award. He was a past chair of the State Bar of Texas Real Estate, Probate & Trust Law Section. Tilley served on the University of North Texas Board of Regents for six years and the Texas Wesleyan University Board of Trustees for 30 years. He was president of the Fort Worth Opera Association and Casa Mañana Musicals. Tilley served on the board of directors and as counsel to the Van Cliburn Foundation and the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra. He is survived by his wife of 26 years, Sandra Cooper Tilley; son, Matt Tilley; daughters, Marisa Hammond, Angela Crates, and Lisa Anderson; stepson, Andrew Dent; stepdaughter, Kelli York; 17 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

JOHN WILLIAM McMACKIN

McMackin, 90, of Fort Worth, died December 10, 2020. He served in the U.S. Air Force from 1953 to 1955. McMackin received his law degree from the University of Illinois College of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1956. He was admitted to practice in Illinois. McMackin practiced corporate mergers and acquisitions and corporate finance law as a partner in Decker Jones and its predecessors in Fort Worth from 1956 to 2007. He enjoyed fishing and hunting, golfing, and traveling. McMackin is survived by his son, John Thomas McMackin; daughter, Patricia McMackin Doswell; brother, David Wilson McMackin; and four grandchildren.

CHENIER J. "JOHN" SANDERS

Sanders, 77, of Missouri City, died December 8, 2020. He served in the U.S. Army from 1966 to 1968, serving in Korea, was honorably discharged as a first lieutenant, and served in the Reserve from 1968 to 1983, being honorably discharged as a captain. Sanders received his law degree from South Texas College of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1979. He was an engineer with Gulf Oil and later an executive and consultant in the oil and gas industry. Sanders' true passion was teaching—he taught business courses at LeTourneau University and the Keller Graduate School of Management for over a decade. He was a 50-year member of the Society of Petroleum Engineers. Sanders is survived by his sons, attorney Michael Chenier Sanders and John Coleman Sanders; and five grandchildren.

GERALD K. FUGIT

Fugit, 89, of Odessa, died October 24, 2020. He served in the U.S. Army. Fugit received his law degree from Southern Methodist University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1955. He was a solo practitioner from 1955 to 2020 and served as judge of Ector County from 1959 to 1966, being the youngest judge in Texas at the time. Fugit helped to build and dedicate the Ector County Courthouse in 1964. He was first and foremost a follower of Jesus Christ—hosting a weekly Christian radio program for many years, teaching Sunday school, and funding the building of churches in Chile, Panama, and Zimbabwe. Fugit served on the Milligan University Board of Advisors and the Milligan University Board of Trustees from 1994 to 1997 and served on the Dallas Christian College Board of Trustees. He is survived by his wife of 61 years, Bette Fugit, and daughter, Deborah Fugit.

ALVIN KING JAMES

James, 91, of Houston, died September 17, 2020. He served in the U.S. Air Force from 1951 to 1955, including the Korean War. James received his law degree from Baylor Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1957. He was an attorney in the Harris County Attorney's Office and an attorney specializing in eminent domain in the Texas State Attorney General's Office. He opened and managed the attorney general's office in Houston. James was a kind, thoughtful soul who found the most joy in his role as a husband, father, and grandfather. He enjoyed great barbecue, good bourbon, and laughing at his own jokes. James was a master storyteller with a razor-sharp memory. He is survived by his wife of 66 years, Camella James; daughters, Alison Hall, Jalinna Jones, and Alissa James; sisters, Marie James Hinson, Annette James Brooks, and Jennette James Bennett; and two granddaughters.

JOHN R. MACLEAN

MacLean, 82, of Fort Worth, died November 8, 2020. He served in the U.S. Army from 1961 to 1964. MacLean received his law degree from Vanderbilt Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1967. He was Johnson County attorney in Cleburne from 1969 to 1976, district attorney for Johnson and Somervell counties from 1977 to 1984, appointed district judge of the 249th District Court by Gov. Mark White in 1984 and served until 1990, and was a partner in MacLean & Boulware from 1990 to 2016. MacLean was an American Board of Trial Advocates National Board Member and was president of the Vanderbilt Bar Association. He received the Johnson County Bar Association Gean B. Turner Memorial Award in 1990. MacLean enjoyed fly-fishing, duck hunting, and snow skiing. He is survived by his wife of 58 years, Carol MacLean; son, John R. "Scotty" MacLean; daughter, Leslie MacLean; and two grandchildren.

JOHN BURNS HENDERSON JR.

Henderson, 86, of Cameron, died March 4, 2020. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1960. Henderson served in the U.S. Navy. He was in private practice in Cameron for over 40 years with his wife, Lella, serving as secretary and office manager for 27 years. Henderson was also Milam County's longest-serving district attorney. He served on the Cameron Independent School District Board of Trustees. Henderson was a member of the First United Methodist Church choir for over 50 years and taught Sunday school for many years. He loved the Cameron Yoemen, Texas Longhorns, Hanover to Sugarloaf Mountain, Blue Bell, chicken fried steak with extra gravy, his weekly Wednesday coffee klatch, and above all else, his family. Henderson is survived by his daughters, Eloise Henderson Bouzari and Elizabeth Ann Henderson Leeper; sister, Jane Henderson Swan; and five grandchildren.

LARRY HAYES

Hayes, 81, of Ormond Beach, Florida, died December 30, 2020. He received his law degree from St. Mary's University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1978. Hayes was an associate of the Law Offices of Windle Turley in Dallas from 1978 to 1983, a staff attorney at Crum & Forster in Dallas from 1983 to 1986, and a partner in Cantey Hanger in Fort Worth from 1986 to 2005. He was a member of the Order of Barristers, the Tarrant County Bar Association, and the Texas Association of Defense Counsel. Hayes enjoyed golfing, gourmet cooking, and researching genealogy. He is survived by his wife of 61 years, Rebecca Hayes; son, Bruce Hayes; daughter, Laura Brewer; two grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

ROBERT LEE RAMSEY

Ramsey, 91, of Houston, died November 4, 2020. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1946 to 1948 and in the Reserve from 1949 to 1953. Ramsey received his LL.B. from Union University, his J.D. from Albany Law School, and his LL.M. in aerospace law from Southern Methodist University School of Law, and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1970. He was admitted to practice in New York State in 1958 and was admitted to the California Bar in 1990. Ramsey was in private practice in Schenectady, New York, from 1958 to 1960; a special agent with the FBI in Washington, D.C., from 1960 to 1964; assistant attorney general in the New York State Attorney General's Office in Albany, New York, from 1964 to 1965; assistant district attorney and chief assistant district attorney in the Schenectady County District Attorney's Office in Schenectady from 1965 to 1968; assistant general counsel to International Air Transport Association in Montreal, Canada, in 1969; senior attorney at the Air Transport Association of America in Washington, D.C., from 1969 to 1970; a lecturer in aviation law at Southern Methodist University School of Law in Dallas from 1970 to 1975; in private practice in Dallas from 1970 to 1976; an administrative judge for the U.S. Department of Labor in Washington, D.C., from 1976 to 1981; chairman and chief administrative appeals judge for the U.S. Department of Labor's Benefits Review Board in Washington, D.C., from 1981 to 1989; an administrative law judge for the U.S. Department of Labor in San Francisco, California, from 1988 to 1989; a partner in Mullen & Filippi in San Francisco from 1989 to 1991; an administrative law judge for the State of California Public Utilities Commission in San Francisco from 1991 to 1998; and a legal consultant from 1998 to 2020. He is survived by his wife, Lynn M. Ramsey; sons, Craig, Matthew, and Scott; and eight grandchildren.

PHILLIP SAMUEL BROWN

Brown, 71, of Arlington, died October 20, 2020. He received his law degree from Texas Tech University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1975. Brown was a partner in Brown & Brown in Lubbock from 1975 to 1979, a solo practitioner in Amarillo from 1979 to 1985, a partner in Hill, Heard, O'Neal, Gilstrap & Goetz in Arlington from 1985 to 1988, a partner in Fanning, Harper & Martinson in Dallas from 1988 to 1997, a partner in Wilson Elser Moskowitz in Dallas from 1997 to 2001, and a solo practitioner in Arlington from 2001 to 2020. He was an avid reader, reading anything and everything. Brown loved fishing, sports, and nature. He supported museums, theaters, and orchestras wherever he lived and traveled. Brown is survived by his wife of 51 years, Cristi; son, Stephen; daughter, Rebecca; brother, Paul Brown; and sister, attorney Cynthia Brown.

ROGER L. COPPLE

Copple, 85, of Santa Fe, New Mexico, died June 13, 2020. He received his law degree from Southern Methodist University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1959. Copple was admitted to the New Mexico State Bar in 1960. He was a partner in Jennings, Christy & Copple in Roswell, New Mexico, from 1960 to 1975; in private practice, focusing on oil and gas and corporate law in Santa Fe from 1975 to 1987; judge of the 1st Judicial District Court in Santa Fe from 1987 to 1989; assistant U.S. attorney for the U.S. District of New Mexico—Civil Division in Santa Fe from 1989 to 1992; and special assistant attorney general to the U.S. District of New Mexico Oil and Gas Accounting Division. Copple was a member of the New Mexico Disciplinary Board from 2000 to 2005 and served on the New Mexico State Bar Fee Arbitration Panel and Commission on Professionalism. He received New Mexico State Bar Service Awards in 1972 and 1973. Copple received a Texas Bar College Service Award in 1995 and was honored as a 50-year lawyer by the State Bar of Texas in 2009. He was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Santa Fe. Copple was a member of the Rotary Club and an avid reader. He is survived by his wife of 66 years, Patricia G. Copple; sons, Bruce A. Copple and Brian D. Copple; brother, attorney Brian D. Copple; and two grandsons.

NATHAN B. SCHATTMAN

Schattman, 50, of Fort Worth, died December 28, 2020. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas

Bar in 1994. Schattman was an attorney at David Fielding from 1995 to 2006, Johnston Legal Group from 2007 to 2014, and Brown Proctor & Howell from 2015 to 2020. He was a Texas Bar Foundation fellow. Schattman studied under Polish patriot Jan Karski at Georgetown. He was a gourmet cook of Portuguese and Brazilian cuisine. Schattman had avid knowledge of legal lore, genealogy, history, and all things Star Trek. He was an uncle extraordinaire. Schattman is survived by his father, attorney Michael D. Schattman; mother, Mary Ellen Brannigan Schattman; and sisters, Virginia Thornton and Rita Rubins.

DWIGHT "IKE" SHUPE

Shupe, 74, of Fort Worth, died December 30, 2020. He served in the U.S. Air Force from 1968 to 1978 and was honorably discharged as a captain. Shupe received his law degree from Southern Methodist University School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1982. He was a partner in Hughes & Luce in Dallas and Fort Worth from 1982 to 2010 and in Shupe Ventura in Fort Worth from 2010 to 2020. Shupe loved his family and the practice of law. He enjoyed camping in the deserts of the Southwest with family and friends, especially his Air Force buddies. Shupe was the family's favorite rocket scientist, graduating with a degree in nuclear engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is survived by his son, Jason Shupe; daughters, Bridget Scott-Shupe and Brandi Mills; sister, Dawn Brandenburg; and three grandchildren.

LEO JOHN PETERSON III

Peterson, 77, of Dallas, died November 1, 2020. He served in the Reserve. Peterson received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1968. He was admitted to practice in Colorado in 1978. Peterson was in the private banking department of Mercantile National Bank in Dallas, practiced family law, founded Physician Supply Service in Dallas, and was the owner of commercial properties. He was a lifelong University of Texas supporter and an avid golfer. Peterson is survived by his wife of 48 years, Jane Venable Peterson; daughter, Brandy Peterson Warren; and sister, Terry Peterson Rodriguez.

GEORGE SLOVER

Slover, 93, of Dallas, died October 31, 2020. He served in the U.S. Navy from 1942 to 1945. Slover received his law degree from Harvard

Law School and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1950. He was a partner in Carrington, Johnson & Bromberg, later Johnson, Bromberg & Leeds, in Dallas. Slover was a member of the Harvard Law Review. Slover is survived by his wife of 67 years, Jane Grayson Slover; sons, George P. Slover, John G. Slover, and Thomas W. Slover; daughter, Elizabeth Slover Howard; eight grandchildren; and one great-grandchild. TBJ