

STATE BAR of TEXAS

District Director Elections – 2021 Contested Race

These biographies are provided to inform voters about the candidates for State Bar director, District 4, Place 5.

Andrew Bayley for District 4, Place 5

Andrew Bayley is an attorney that has been practicing in Harris County, Texas since 2010. He started out as a solo attorney and now owns and operates the Bayley Law Firm with his wife and partner, Yalda Bayley. Andrew is Board Certified in Family Law but also represents clients in matters involving real estate and commercial litigation. As an owner of a small firm, Andrew is running to be a State Bar Director to ensure that solo attorneys and attorneys working in small firms have a voice on the State Bar. Andrew is passionate about helping attorneys, and has regularly donated his free time to mentoring young lawyers and helping them with their practice. Andrew has been an outspoken and passionate advocate for ensuring that the State Bar represent the needs of all of its members including small firm and solo lawyers. Andrew is a staunch civil libertarian and advocate of free speech. In the past he has advocated and fought for grievance reform, universal courthouse badges, and increased transparency for the bar. As a State Bar Director, Andrew will continue to advocate for these policies and other policies that reduce the burden that the State Bar places on attorneys.
