

STATE BAR of TEXAS

District Director Elections – 2021 Uncontested Race

These biographies are provided to inform voters about the candidates for State Bar director, District 9, Place 3.

Kennon L. Wooten for District 9, Place 3

Kennon is a partner at Scott Douglass & McConnico, where she focuses primarily on civil litigation but also handles appeals and advises clients on rule-related matters. Previously, she served as the Texas Supreme Court’s Rules Attorney, worked at Baker Botts, and clerked for former Chief Justice Wallace B. Jefferson of the Texas Supreme Court. Kennon has a track record of service. She is a member of the State Bar’s Pro Bono College, speaks frequently at CLE events, and serves as the President of the Austin Bar Association, the Secretary of the Texas Legal Service Center, and a member of the American Law Institute, Supreme Court Advisory Committee, Editorial Board for The Advocate, and State Bar Court Rules Committee. Previously, she served as the President of the Austin Young Lawyers Association, the Chair of the State Bar’s Court Rules Committee, the Editor-in-Chief for Austin Lawyer, and a member of the Texas Commission to Expand Civil Legal Services. In 2017, she received a “Standing Ovation” State Bar Volunteer Award. In her free time, Kennon enjoys volunteering, writing, and spending time with her family members and friends. She is a published co-author of law-review articles and a book on discovery practices in Texas.
