

ARTHUR T. MOORE

Moore, 82, of Sugar Land, died January 26, 2023. He received his law degree from South Texas College of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1973.

Moore served in the U.S. Army as a first lieutenant and captain in the U.S. and Korea. He worked for the Humble Pipe Line Company and was an attorney with Jones, Tanner and Pace in Livingston; an attorney with KN Energy and AMAX Oil & Gas in Longview; an attorney with Louis Davis and Associates in Houston; and was an attorney with several other firms in Houston as well as a solo practitioner. Moore was summa cum laude at South Texas College of Law, a registered professional engineer, and a registered professional land surveyor. He is survived by his wife of 53 years, Charlotte Campbell Moore; son, David Moore; daughter, attorney Angela Moore; sister, Ann Moore Croyle; and two grandchildren.

WILLIAM CROSBIE HUNTER III

Hunter, 79, of Austin, died January 6, 2023. He received his law degree from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1978. Hunter was a staff attorney with the Texas secretary of state in 1978-1979; assistant attorney general in the Transportation and Taxation divisions of the Office of the Texas Attorney General in 1979-1981; a solo practitioner at the Law Office of William C. Hunter, specializing in personal injury, insurance, bad faith, consumer litigation, and family law in 1982-1993; and an assistant attorney general in the Financial Litigation Division of the Office of the Texas Attorney General in 1993-2007. He is remembered for his love and loyalty to family and friends, hosting holiday parties and an annual Oscar night party for them; loving the arts as a movie buff, longtime Austin Opera ticketholder, and collector of art, music, and books; and coaching his sons' basketball and soccer teams. Hunter is survived by his wife of 20 years, attorney Cynthia Hayes; sons, Noah Grant Hunter and Aaron Ellinger Hunter; and one grandchild.

MANUEL "GENE" GRANT JR.

Grant, 70, of Benbrook, died April 21, 2023. He received his law degree from South Texas College of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1980. Grant was an assistant district attorney with the Tarrant County District Attorney's Office; co-founder of Snodgrass, Sorensen and Grant; and the first appointed Tarrant County criminal district magistrate, serving with distinction for 28 years until his retirement. He is remembered for his love of golfing, hunting, and fishing. Grant is survived by his wife of 37 years, Michelle Grant; son, Mikel Grant; daughter, Courtney Pack; and five grandchildren.

DONN C. FULLENWEIDER

Fullenweider, 88, of Houston, died April 17, 2023. He received his law degree from the University of Houston School of Law and was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1958. Fullenweider served in the U.S. Air Force Reserve. He was an attorney with the Law Offices of Fred Parks in Houston in 1958-1965; Haynes & Fullenweider Firm in Houston in 1965-1999; the Fullenweider Firm in Houston in 1999-2008; and Fullenweider Wilhite in Houston in 2008-2023. He was chair of the State Bar of Texas Board of Directors, president of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, and was recognized as an outstanding 50-year lawyer by the State Bar. Fullenweider is remembered for his love of art, music, and the outdoors. Fullenweider is survived by his wife of 32 years, attorney Wendy Fullenweider; sons, attorney Keith Fullenweider and Ben Cornwell; sister, Ann Kennedy; and five grandchildren.

JEFFREY L. "JEFF" VAN HORN

Van Horn, 78, of McMahan, died May 6, 2023. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas

Bar in 1973. Van Horn was an associate of the Law Office of Joe H. Tonahill in 1973-1974; a solo practitioner in Luling in 1975-1976; an assistant district attorney in the 22nd Judicial District Court in 1977-1981; a criminal district attorney in Caldwell County in 1981-1990; an assistant state's attorney with the Office of the State Prosecuting Attorney in 1991-2007; and state prosecuting attorney in 2007-2010. He was recognized as the Texas prosecutor of the year by the State Bar of Texas Criminal Justice Section in 2010. Van Horn is survived by his son, Jeffrey L. Van Horn II; daughter, Nancy Jo Van Horn; and four grandchildren.

JOSEPH WEAVER RUSSELL

Russell, 77, of Olmos Park, died June 2, 2023. He received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the Texas

Bar in 1972. Russell served in the U.S. Army from 1968 to 1970. He was an associate of Branscomb, Gary, Thomasson & Hall in Corpus Christi from 1973 to 1976; a partner in Foster, Lewis, Langley, Gardner & Banack in San Antonio from 1973 to 1993; an attorney with Russell & Hollan from 1993 to 2002; and a partner in J.W. Russell, P.C., from 2002 to 2023. Russell served on the editorial board of the Texas Law Review. He is remembered for his wit and his love of the arts and horses. He is survived by his partner of 18 years, Judy Wright Walter; sons, attorneys Philip Walter Russell and Andrew Calvert Russell; and four grandchildren. TBJ