Disclosure of Offers Under the Public Information Act: All offers and other information submitted to the State Bar of Texas by an Offeror are subject to the Texas Public Information Act, Chapter 552 of the Texas Government Code ("the Act"). After the award and/or execution of a final contract for a particular procurement, offers submitted shall be presumed to be public information and to be subject to disclosure unless a specific exception to disclosure under the Act applies. If it is necessary for an Offeror to include proprietary or otherwise confidential information in its offer, that particular information should be clearly identified and reference shall be made to the specific exception to disclosure in the Act. Merely making a blanket claim that the entire offer is protected from disclosure because it contains some proprietary information is not acceptable, and will not render the entire proposal confidential. Any information which is not clearly identified as proprietary or confidential may be deemed to be subject to disclosure pursuant to the Act. The successful proposal may be considered public information even though parts are marked "confidential". The State Bar of Texas assumes no responsibility for asserting legal arguments for Respondents. Offerors are advised to consult with their legal counsel concerning disclosure issues resulting from this response process and to take precautions to safeguard trade secrets and other proprietary information.

Cost of Offer Preparation: The State Bar of Texas shall not be responsible for any costs incurred by an Offeror in preparing and submitting an offer in response to this RFP.

Offer Irrevocability Period: Offers submitted in response to this solicitation are irrevocable for one hundred twenty (120) calendar days following the closing date. This period may be extended at the State Bar of Texas Purchasing Manager's request only by an Offeror's written agreement.

Discussions: After offers are opened and evaluated, an award may be made without discussing the offer with any of the Offerors. In this context, "discussing" means clarifying, modifying, and/or negotiating. However, after the initial responsiveness screening, financial screening, and quality of experience screening, the State Bar of Texas may determine it is necessary to discuss acceptable or potentially acceptable offers with Offerors in order to determine an Offeror's ability to meet the RFP requirements. If discussions are conducted for this purpose, Offerors whose offers are found to be acceptable or potentially acceptable shall be given equal opportunity to discuss their offer with the State Bar of Texas and revise them accordingly. In this context "potentially acceptable" means reasonably susceptible to being made acceptable. Following these discussions, a time and place shall be set for receipt of best and final offers from all Offerors whose proposals are acceptable. No changes to proposals or prices shall be allowed after best and final offers are received unless the State Bar of Texas, in its sole discretion, determines that resubmission would be in the public interest.

Oral Presentations: The State Bar of Texas may, at its discretion, elect to have Offerors provide oral presentations of their offers.

Best and Final Offers Based upon the State Bar of Texas's evaluation of the Offerors' responses to this RFP, the State Bar of Texas shall determine if there is a need to solicit a "Best and Final" offer. A request for a "Best and Final" offer shall be at the sole discretion of the State Bar of Texas and shall be requested in writing from the State Bar of Texas's Central Purchasing Division. Any unsolicited Offeror requests for a "Best and Final" offer shall not be considered.

Award Of Contract: A response to an RFP is an offer to contract with the State based upon the terms, conditions, and specifications contained in the RFP. Offers do not become contracts unless and until they are accepted by the State Bar of Texas or through a State Bar of Texas Purchase Order. The contract shall be executed in and governed, construed and interpreted under the laws of the state of Texas. State Bar of Texas reserves the right to negotiate price and terms with any and all Offerors, to accept or reject all or any part of an offer, waive minor technicalities, to request Best and Final Offers from all or any Offerors, and make an award that represents Best Value to the Agency. Subsequent to award, State Bar of Texas may, at its sole option, request the Offeror to negotiate contract amendments or renewals as is determined to be in the best interest of the agency or the State.

Offeror Assignments: No assignment is permitted the Offeror without prior written consent of State Bar of Texas. Any written request for assignment must be accompanied by written acceptance of the assignment by the assignee. Except where otherwise agreed in writing by State Bar of Texas, assignment will not release Offeror from its obligations pursuant to the contract.

State Bar of Texas Assignments: State Bar of Texas may sub-lease or assign equipment and related services provided via the contract to other entities which are affiliated with and to which the State Bar of Texas provides support or services.

Dispute Resolution Procedures: Any actual or prospective Bidder or Offeror who is aggrieved in connection with the solicitation, evaluation, award of, or performance under a contract may formally protest to the Executive Director (hereinafter, the Director). Such protests must be made via certified mail and received in the Director's office within ten (10) business days from the date of the announcement of the award. The written protest must include: the number of the solicitation being protested; the grounds for the protest, including a description of any alleged acts or omissions by State Bar of Texas that form the basis for the protest; any written information which the protestor believes is relevant to the award; and the basis for the protestor's interest in the procurement.

State Bar of Texas will make available to the protestor all requested documents not exempted from disclosure under Texas and federal law. State Bar of Texas will provide copies of these documents upon payment of the fees adopted by State Bar of Texas for record duplication. The protestor will be provided an opportunity for an informal meeting with the Director or designee, to discuss the protest, however, State Bar of Texas may limit the amount of time allocated for the meeting. The Director will make the final written decision to the protestor.

Debt To The State: Offeror agrees that any payments due under this contract will be applied towards any debt, including but not limited to delinquent taxes and child support that is owed to the State of Texas.

Hold-over Provision: In the event contract renewal negotiations are not completed prior to the contract expiration date, both parties agree that services shall be provided by the Offeror and accepted by State Bar of Texas on a month-to-month basis, subject to all original terms and conditions of the contract, for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days following the original contract expiration date. The hold-over monthly service costs shall be the pro-rated per-month rates in effect immediately prior to such expiration. Such hold-over agreement shall not be interpreted to extend the term of the original contract. State Bar of Texas may terminate such hold-over service on the last calendar day of the month by providing written notice of cancellation not less than ten (10) business days prior to the cancellation date.

The State Bar of Texas shall furnish to Offeror, upon request, suitable documentation of the State Bar of Texas's exemption from such taxes on goods and services procured on behalf of the State Bar of Texas.

Contingency Based Upon Appropriations and Funding: The State Bar of Texas is an agency of the judicial branch of Texas government. If the Legislature and/or Court fails to continue the existence of the State Bar of Texas as it currently exists, or the Court fails to appropriate or allot the necessary funds, or the Board fails to allocate the necessary funds to the State Bar of Texas to fulfill its obligations and responsibilities under any agreement resulting from this RFP, then the State Bar of Texas may terminate any agreement resulting from this RFP without any further duty or obligation there under. Offeror acknowledges that the activities of the Legislature, the Court, and the Board, and that the appropriation, allotment, and the allocation of funds are beyond the control of the State Bar of Texas. State Bar of Texas will not be in default for nonpayment under this contract if such appropriated funds are not available to State Bar of Texas for payment of State Bar of Texas's obligations under this contract. In such event State Bar of Texas will promptly notify Offeror, and the contract shall terminate simultaneous with the termination of any such funding.

4. RELATIONSHIP AND DUTIES OF OFFEROR AND STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Offeror shall assure that his subcontractors are similarly responsible for such payments.

It is expressly understood and agreed by both parties hereto that the State Bar of Texas is contracting with Offeror as an independent offeror, and that Offeror, as such, agrees to hold the State Bar of Texas, its agents and employees harmless and to defend and indemnify the State Bar of Texas, its agents and employees from and against any and all claims, demands, damages, liabilities and causes of action of every kind and character which may be asserted by any third party occurring from, in any way incident to, arising out of, or in connection with any acts or omissions of Offeror or any agent, employee, subcontractor, or supplier of the Offeror in the execution or performance of this contract. Offeror understands and agrees that Offeror is not an employee of the State Bar of Texas, and any payments or other benefits accruing to Offeror which may be similar to payments or benefits available to employees of the State Bar of Texas have been determined by the State Bar of Texas to be the method of contracting that involves the least expense to the State of Texas. The State Bar of Texas shall not be liable to Offeror, its employees, agents, or others for the provision of unemployment insurance or workers' compensation coverage to Offeror, its employees, agents, or others. Further the Offeror agrees to hold harmless and indemnify the State Bar of Texas from and against any and all claims, demands, damages, liabilities and causes of action of every kind and character brought by its employees, agents, or others due to personal injuries or injuries of whatever sort and/or the death or disability of such employees, agents, or others resulting from any alleged negligent act of commission or omission on the part of Offeror.

The State Bar shall have sole ownership rights to any such materials and work product.

Copyright, Trade Secret, Intellectual Property, and Patent Infringement and Rights:

Offeror shall indemnify and hold harmless the State Bar of Texas against any claim of copyright, trade secret, or patent, or intellectual property infringement arising in connection with the performances required of Offeror pursuant to this procurement. Offeror shall be liable to pay all costs, damages, and attorneys' fees incurred by the State Bar of Texas as a result of any claim for the infringement of any United States or internationally protected patent(s) or copyright(s) arising from the use by Offeror or the State Bar of Texas of any equipment, materials, information, or ideas employed or furnished by Offeror in connection with the performances called for in this procurement. Offeror and the State Bar of Texas agree to furnish timely written notice to each other of any such claim of copyright, trade secret, patent, and/or intellectual property infringement.

The Offeror must defend, at its expense, any action brought against State Bar of Texas that is based on a claim that goods supplied by the Offeror, or the use of such goods, infringes a United States patent, copyright or trade secret.

Should the goods, or use of the goods, become the subject of a claim of infringement of a United States patent, copyright or trade secret or intellectual property right, the State Bar of Texas may require the Offeror to procure for State Bar of Texas the right to continue using the goods, to replace or modify the same to remove the infringement, or to accept return of the goods.

services provided under any agreement resulting from this RFP. In the event such an audit reveals any errors/overpayments by the State Bar of Texas, the Offeror shall refund to the State Bar of Texas the full amount of such overpayments within thirty (30) days of such audit findings, or the State Bar of Texas, at its option, reserves the right to deduct such amounts owing to the State Bar of Texas from any payments due Offeror.
