

2019 Law Day Contest Winners

Editorial Contest

First Place: Luke Frei, Holland High School, Temple (Bell County Young Lawyers Association)

Second Place: Kala Pham, Michael E. DeBakey High School, Houston (Houston Bar Association)

Third Place: Surya Dasgupta, All Saints Episcopal School, Tyler (Smith County Bar Association)

Photography Contest

First Place: Rolando Vera, G.W. Carver Magnet High School, Houston (Houston Bar Association)

Second Place: Julie Marie Tift, Young Women's Leadership Academy, San Antonio (Bexar County Women's Bar Association)

Third Place: Josiah Sanchez, Mary Carroll High School, Corpus Christi (Corpus Christi Bar Association)

Poster Contest

Kindergarten to Second Grade

First Place: Adyasha Pradhan, Moore Elementary, Houston (Houston Bar Association)

Second Place: Victoria Reza, St. Matthew Catholic School, El Paso (El Paso Bar Association)

Third Place: Michael A. Canales, London Elementary School, Corpus Christi (Corpus Christi Bar Association)

Third to Fifth Grade

First Place: Heba Badat, Kujawa Elementary, Houston (Houston Bar Association)

Second Place: Camilla Miller, Hamshire Fannet, Winne (Jefferson County Bar Association)

Third Place: Ariel Falcon, Gloria Hicks Elementary, Corpus Christi (Corpus Christi Bar Association)

Sixth to Eighth Grade

First Place: Madison Franklin, W.H. Atwell Law Academy, DeSoto (Dallas Bar Association)

Second Place: Meaghan Williams, Grant Middle School, Corpus Christi (Corpus Christi Bar Association)

Third Place: Adele Bosma, Benold Middle School, Georgetown (Williamson County Bar Association)

Ninth to Twelfth Grade

First Place: Ashton Goebel, Hardin-Jefferson High School, Beaumont (Jefferson County Bar Association)

Second Place: Alison Duncan, Incarnate Word Academy, Portland (Corpus Christi Bar Association)

Third Place: Kristina Hoskins, Shema Homeschool, Jonestown (Williamson County Bar Association)