

TMCP Summer Internship Program

The Texas Minority Counsel Program (TMCP) invites eligible law students to apply for its Summer Internship Program, which will provide placement opportunities for Summer 2024.

The TMCP Summer Internship Program is intended to provide qualified law students who completed their first year of law school with career building opportunities at participating law firms and the corporate legal departments they serve. The law student will first work at a participating law firm, and then spend some time interning for the partnering corporate legal department. The goal is to provide students with relevant legal experience and networking opportunities that will set them up for success during the all-important second-year fall interviewing period and eventually as they seek permanent employment as an attorney.

Participating Law Firms and Partner Corporations:

- Baker Botts LLP & Chevron (Houston, Texas¹)
- Greenberg Traurig & Apple (Austin, Texas²)

Eligibility Requirements:

To be eligible for consideration, students must be:

- A class of 2026 law student (1L or 2E) at an ABA accredited law school.
- In good academic standing and show a record of academic achievement.
- Submit a completed application by Friday, January 5, 2024. (Late and/or incomplete applications will not be considered.)

Application Process:

The following materials constitute a candidate's application. Please combine the following materials into 1 PDF document:

- A personal statement (500 words or less) that addresses what you believe demonstrates your qualification(s), including, for example, academic and personal strengths; exceptional contributions to diversity and inclusion; and/or how you have overcome adversity, such as a personal or family history of educational or socioeconomic disadvantage; and/or how you have exhibited the tenacity and talent to excel.
- A current resume.
- An official or unofficial law school transcript.³
- An official undergraduate transcript.

Application must be sent by Friday, January 5, 2024, to TMCPinternship@texasbar.com.

Finally, all students are encouraged to attend the Law Student Program at TMCP 2024, scheduled for Thursday, October 24, 2024, at the AT&T Conference Center and Hotel in Austin, Texas. For more information, please visit www.texasbar.com/tmcp.

² This internship is specific to Greenberg Traurig's Austin Office. Applicants should plan to live in the Austin area for the duration of the internship and expect that the internship will require in-person attendance.

³ Understanding that official transcripts might not be available prior to the application deadline, law students should submit unofficial transcripts (e.g., unofficial transcripts from the registrar's office or a printout of a student's grade portal) in this case. Applicants will be required to supplement their application in January 2024 upon the publication of their official transcript that includes law school grades.
